Prohibition To Be Chief Issue For Democrats

Committee Meeting Tomorrow May Reveal Wide Breach In Party

NEW YORK NOT SOLID DELEGATION

Distinct Split In Party In New York May Be Brought To Light

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—A Democratic show-down on prohibition impended today as members of the National Committee and party leaders gathered in Washington for tomorrow's meeting called by Chairman John J. Raskob.

While Southern drys protested against any effort to commit the national committee on the subject, Chairman Raskob and his friends calmly proceeded with plans to introduce the subject in tomorrow's meeting and get a count of noses as to just where the party stands on the wet-and-dry issue.

Supported By Smith
Chairman Raskob's program has the support of Ex-Gov. Alfred E. Smith, although "Al" smilingly observed that he was not a member of the committee and that the committee was its own master. But he vigorously defended the "free discussion" of any issue in any gathering of Democrats.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New's domain, with other Pennsylvania cities, focused the spotlight of attention on the life and work of William Penn today. Schools played a major role in the "Pennsylvania Day" observance.

As time draws near for the New Castle Elks to entertain their national grand exalted ruler, Tuesday, March 24, more letters conveying the support of other district lodges are being received. All of the lodges will send large delegations.

One motorist, driving a California-tagged car, took advantage of a new direction sign on the public square yesterday. He was about to ask a pedestrian, but saw the guide post and didn't have to.

You can say one thing—the First Christian tower clock has kept the correct time ever since its first wayward move shortly after installation. Quite a number rely on it in their movements.

Gradually, diggers are thinning out at the county-operated surface coal strip east of the city. Applicants still are welcome, but only a few are asking permits. Every once in a while the mine attendance jumps considerably, only to decrease again. Many have their coal bins filled.

Saw an old time buggy yesterday attached to a fine-looking sedan. The singletree of the buggy was braced against the auto, but the why and wherefore of it remains a mystery.

Up on Court street last night some of the younger News gave motorists a thrill, it is said. For the fun of it, evidently, they stretch a white ribbon across the street at a height that let a strike car near the windshield. One driver said it momentary.

Daily Weather Report

U. S. weather bureau statistics for the 24 hour period ending at nine o'clock this morning follow:
Minimum temperature, 18.
Precipitation, trace, snow flurries.
River stage 4.2 feet.

OHIO LEGISLATURE SWAMPS PROPOSED DRY REPEAL VOTE

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., Mar. 4.—Overwhelming disapproval of the resolution providing for a referendum on the question of repeal of the state prohibition amendment had been registered today by the Lower House of the Ohio State legislature.

Senate Sustains President's Veto On Muscle Shoals

By Vote Of 49 To 34 Senate Upholds Hoover Veto Of Norris Bill

NORRIS MAY PRESS BILL IN DECEMBER

Hoover Keeps Pace With Harding And Coolidge, Opposing Measure

International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Muscle Shoals again was the "political symbol" President Hoover predicted his veto would make it, and Congress, and Senator Norris, (R) of Nebraska, were no nearer today to forcing government operation of the huge wartime Power and Nitrate Plant than they were ten years ago.

The Senate sustained the President's rejection of the Norris bill last night, 49 to 34.

In a preliminary statement issued last Saturday, Mr. Hoover predicted he would be accused of favoring the Power Trust if he vetoed the measure, and members of Congress were quick to make this prediction come true.

Senator Black Speaks
Senator Black, (D) of Alabama, said the people of the south who voted for the President in 1928 because of statements indicating approval, had been betrayed. Norris also commented bitterly on the President's stand.

The administration may not fare so well next December, if Norris once again presses his bill. The Congress which comes in then, with its uncertainty of control by either major political party, presumably would look far more kindly on the Nebraskaan's efforts to have the government operate Muscle Shoals.

"I am firmly opposed to the government operation of the plant," he said.

Compensation Board Fight Is Commenced

Organized Labor Fights To Have Present Board Continue In Power

Governor Pinchot Desires Entire New Commission Through Dismissals

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 4.—The decision of the workmen's compensation board not to fade politely from the picture at the behest of Governor Gifford Pinchot today apparently had resulted in heading the entire problem for a court contest.

At a hearing late yesterday before the Senate Committee on executive nominations leaders of organized labor united in praising the present board and insisting against their replacement by inexperienced members.

The Governor's dismissal of the entire board and even the clerks and stenographers which it had employed was termed an attempt to block entirely administration of the compensation act until the Senate approves the names which he has submitted for Senate confirmation.

Two Bandits Are Shot To Death By Police In Ambush

Third Member Of Bandit Trio Wounded But Escapes From Officers

POLICE TIPPED OFF WAREHOUSE ROBBERY

(International News Service)
FINDLAY, O., Mar. 4.—As a grim sequel to holdup plans that went awry, two bandits lay dead here today while police continued a widespread search for a third member of the holdup trio who made his escape although wounded, by running a gauntlet of machine gun fire.

Tipped that an attempt would be made to hold up the A. E. Dorsey grocery warehouse here last night, a police detail armed with sub-machine guns was rushed to the scene and an ambush arranged.

When the three bandits walked in to the police trap, the machine guns opened fire. Two of the men crumpled to the ground, killed instantly, the third, believed seriously wounded, made his escape.

Reported Married
Daughter Of Famous Woman Evangelist Wed William Bradley Smyth

(International News Service)
LONDON, Mar. 4.—Roberta Semple McPherson, 20-year-old daughter of the California evangelist, Aimee Semple McPherson, was married today to William Bradley Smyth, purser of the liner President Wilson, according to a Central News dispatch from Singapore.

Grand jury investigation of circumstances connected with the indictment of A. S. Guyer on 22 charges of violation of the securities act, was ordered by Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers this morning when it was discovered that no bonds had been filed with the alderman's transcript.

Bonds on the 22 cases should have amounted to over $30,000.

Judge R. L. Hildebrand addressed the jury when it was brought from courtroom No. 2 to courtroom No. 1. He said that a matter had come to the attention of the court which could not be overlooked, and he believed that it was a fit subject for special investigation by the grand jury.

"Returns of true bills in 22 cases against Guyer," he said, "were based on separate informations. Records as returned by the alderman show that Guyer was held in $1,500 bail."

ALL RECORDS FALL; SEE GREAT WEEK

Food Show and Home Beautiful Exposition, which opened Tuesday night at the Cathedral under the auspices of the New Castle Retail Grocers Association, had, on its opening night, a crowd that broke all previous records in attendance and entertainment.

Fully fifteen hundred people were in attendance and enjoyed the fine exhibits, the distribution of samples, baskets of foodstuffs and entertainment provided by various artists and entertainers.

Attendance on the opening night exceeded not only that of last year, but all expectations and indicates the success of the affair during the balance of the week, according to C. Everett Anderson, president of the Association, James R. MacKenzie and J. O'Neill vice presidents, and other officers of the New Castle Retail Grocers Association.

Persons attending are not only being well entertained but receive information and ideas in the use of foodstuffs and the improvement of the home that more than repay them for the effort and small expense in attending the affair.

Hunt Arson Ring At Youngstown As Result Of Blast

Ringleaders Sought By Police For Bombing Of Lincoln Theater

(International News Service)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Mar. 4.—Ringleaders of an arson ring, declared responsible for the terrific explosion which wrecked the Lincoln Theater yesterday and injured two persons, were sought by fire department officials and police today.

After an investigation of the wrecked structure, Harry Callan, chief of the Youngstown Fire Department, voiced the belief that the arson ring, believed to have perpetrated several blasts and fires in the city recently, had bombed the theater.

Fire immediately followed the blast, resulting in loss estimate at $30,000. Mrs. Rose Vitulo, 24, was rendered temporarily dumb by the concussion while George I. Barton, 43, who lived near the theater, was hurled from his sickbed to the floor.

DEATH RECORD

EXHUME BODY OF GIRL FOR NEW TRIAL EVIDENCE

(International News Service)
REYNOLDS, Ind., Mar. 4.—On a quiet, snow-mantled hillside, among the tombstones of her mother and other ancestors, grave diggers today brought the body of Arlene Draves out of the earth in order that it might be examined for additional evidence in the trial of Virgil Kirkland, charged with the girl's murder.

Arlene's brothers, Elmer, Carl and Kenneth, and her sister, Elsie, wept as the steel cased casket was disinterred. Charles M. Draves, the father, suffered a nervous breakdown and could not be present.

State officials with attorneys and medical experts representing the prosecution and the defense stood about the open grave.

The body was exhumed in accordance with an order granted in Porter county court late yesterday by Judge Grant C. Crumpacker upon request of the defense.

The casket was transported in a hearse to the City Hall of this village, where a new post mortem was to be made on the body in an attempt to show that evidence of vital importance to Kirkland's defense had not been secured in the original autopsy.

Fiscal Program Is Completed By Waning Congress

Peace-Time Congress Appropriates $5,000,000,000 Before Adjourning

DEFICIENCY BILL PASSED TUESDAY

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—The first peace-time "five billion dollar session" completed its fiscal program shortly before midnight with approval of the second deficiency bill carrying $84,000,000 to run the government next year.

The measure brought the total of appropriations for the session to approximately $5,050,000,000.

In the final conference, a $10,000,000 appropriation to start work on Cove Creek Dam was stricken out because the senate upheld the Muscle Shoals veto. A fund of $5,000,000 for Veterans Bureau hospital also was removed pending final agreement on an authorization bill as $1,000,000 for maternity and infancy work.

The house, in finally acting on the bill approved $5,000,000 for the reclamation fund to continue on projects in the West.

The bill carries $18,000,000 for construction of Federal buildings and postoffices, more than $23,000,000 to meet deficiencies in the Veterans Bureau, $800,000 for government buildings on Governor's Island, Alameda, Calif.; $1,900,000 to complete the Northeastern Federal Prison, $2,200,000 for a dirigible base at Sunnyvale, Calif.; $1,196,000 for air corps construction at Alameda, Calif., and Marin County, Calif.

"I just can't live any longer. This has got to be too much for me. I am going to end it all."

Here was a real life tragedy—stranger, more poignant than any conceived by even the imaginative writers of the long run of movie "murder thrillers."

Benita Bischoff—that was her name—was a freshman at Audubon high school. Up to last Thursday, when screaming newspaper headlines told of her mother's death, she was lively, vivacious, gay. Like her mother, she was dark and attractive.

"Hoover Congress" At Outset, Anything But Manageable At End

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—The 71st Congress, in many respects the most remarkable of the post-war congresses dies its constitutional death at noon today after two hectic years of turmoil and turbulence—and prodigious legislating.

It was called "The Hoover Congress" when it came into power, and it was called "The Hoover Congress" when it came into power, and it was called "The Hoover Congress" when it came into power.

Bridge Widow Trembles As She Testifies In Own Defense At Kansas City

(BULLETIN)
KANSAS CITY, Mar. 4.—Following a brief recital of the events leading up to the slaying of her husband by Mrs. Myrtle A. Bennett, the defense rested its case at 10:25 a. m.

Widow Testifies
Kansas City, Mar. 4.—Climaxing eight laborious days of court routine, Mrs. Myrtle A. Bennett, comely brunet widow, took the witness stand in her own behalf today to tell her story of the slaying of her prosperous salesman husband, John G. Bennett, following a quarrel over a bridge game September 29, 1930.

Although the placing of the widow on the witness stand had been expected since yesterday, it came with a suddenness after seemingly interminable delays brought about by the wrangling of state and defense attorneys.

The defendant, attractively attired and evidencing nervous apprehension, was led to the witness stand (Continued On Page Two)

Final Capping Of Well Takes Place

Will Now Seek Market For Wild Gusher That Belched Many Days

(International News Service)
WELLSBORO, Pa., Mar. 4.—The Meeker natural gas gusher, which spewed out gas at a rate of 150,000 cubic feet a day for more than a week, was tamed today, and operators of the well turned to the question of marketing the gas.

Casing on the shaft is completed and quick drying cement, to reinforce the metal sheathing of the well, was poured today. By tomorrow, the crew of "cappers" estimated, all gas flow from the well will be shut off by use of the "Christmas tree," a valve device which gradually cuts down the gas pressure.

The well will remain capped, officials of the operating company said, until the marketing problem is solved.

Interest turned today to Sabinsville, where the Lyscoming Gas company, subsidiary of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, expects to bring in a new well one mile east of town sometime this week.

The Sabinsville well is already cased.

There are fences to be mended, there are haylofts to repair, there are henneries that need a board or two, there are cattle sheds in tatters, and a road to patch a bit, and it seems as though a farmer's never through. For as soon as he is finished, and the work is nearly up, then the plowing is the order of the day, and he plows for hay and spinach and for, desiccated tripe and he labors till the sun's completely gone. Sing you of the joys of farming, tell me what a cinch they have, whisper of their easy living, folks, and say, I'll be likely to start laughing for I know some farmer lads, and they have a job, it's forty today.

PURIM SPIRIT HOLDS FORTH AT HADASSAH

The Purim spirit of merrymaking and jollification was manifested Tuesday night in the ball room of The Castleton when the New Castle chapter of Hadassah held their annual ball.

Mrs. Phillip Levine, as general chairman, distributed novelty hats and noise makers of all kinds, which were used most heartily by the large crowd, until one would have thought it was New Year's Eve.

Beautiful gowns and smart frocks were beautifully set off by a background of the men's black and white evening garments, and the festivity was marked by the most excellent music furnished by local talent.

Featuring the evening was a prize waltz, which was won by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Anderson, with H. Barron of Butler and Miss A. Haben of Youngstown, Ohio, a close second. Baskets of beautiful flowers were presented to them by the judges.

During intermission refreshments were served from a long table placed at one end of the ball room.

The Hadassah organization feels proud of the success of the ball of Tuesday evening and to Mrs. Phillip Levine, Mrs. A. Fisher, Mrs. B. Kline, Mrs. Charles Levine, Mrs. M. Herschowitz, Mrs. Marc Levine, Mrs. L. Zieve, Mrs. Lew Miller, Mrs. L. Sandler, Mrs. M. Newman, Mrs. J. Silverman, Mrs. J. Cobb, Mrs. D. Tobin, Mrs. N. Love, Mrs. H. Kilvans, Mrs. H. Pitts, Mrs. S. Zakut, to Mrs. B. Moresky and Mrs. L. P. Kohn, the president, goes much credit for their untiring efforts to put the ball over in such a splendid manner.

Guests were present from Youngstown, Ohio, Pittsburgh, Ellwood City, Butler, New Brighton and Beaver Falls.

Tau Delta Class Meets

Monday evening the Tau Delta class of the Epworth Methodist church met at the home of Gladys Corley on Oak street, with Mrs. Genevieve Johns as the associate hostess.

The business session was presided over by the president, Hazel Armstrong, and the usual routine business was transacted.

The recreation period was pleasantly passed with games and awards were made to Hazel Armstrong, Mrs. Thelma Twaddle and Gladys Erwin. The evening closed with the hostess serving a dainty lunch.

April 6 will mark the date of the next meeting, at a place to be decided later.

T. L. T. KENSINGTON KID PARTY TUESDAY

Mrs. Harper Dick charmingly entertained members of the T. L. T. Kensington members at the home of Mrs. H. G. Voorhees, on Chestnut street, Tuesday, and as special guests, the ladies had Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mrs. S. B. Peterson.

The gathering was in the form of a "Kid" party, and proved most amusing, each appearing in dainty ruffled frocks and bonnets. To keep with this idea, an assortment of kid-games were arranged, and played during the social hours. A feature of the meeting was the cake-walk, and the prize for this was awarded to Louella Nicholson.

Covers were laid for 15 guests at the large table beautifully decorated in the seasons tones, where an appetizing menu was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Voorhees. Plans were completed for a 6 o'clock twelve dinner which will take place in four weeks at the home of Mrs. James Shaffer, on Pine street.

Honors Husband

Mrs. C. C. Stump, Sheridan avenue, honored her husband Tuesday evening, when she invited in a number of friends as a surprise to him, the date being his birth anniversary.

Three tables of 500 were in play during the evening, after which music and an informal time were enjoyed with the honor guest receiving many lovely gifts to commemorate the event.

The small tables were centered with flowers and appointed in St. Patrick suggestions at the close of the evening and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Earl Waddington and Faye Stump.

Those falcitating Mr. Stump at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Alf Robins and daughter Lois J. and Mrs. James Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and family, Mrs. Fugh and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waddington and son Billy.

Young Couple Honored

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, a bride and groom of recent date, friends of the Hoover Heights Tabernacle gathered in the Anderson home on Morris street Tuesday evening to shower them with a collection of gifts.

A tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Ada Anderson, Mrs. Anna Anderson and Mrs. Robert Abernathy at a selecter hour, the appointments being cleverly carried out suggesting St. Patrick's day.

Miss Grace Patterson favored the guests with a number of readings which were well received, and also, the entire group joined in singing chorus selections, filling in the social hours.

Study Class Meets

Dr. T. J. McPate, Park avenue, was host to the members of the Y. P. C. U. study class of Highland United Presbyterian church Tuesday evening.

Dr. C. J. Williamson conducted the study period, which was followed by an hour of recreation, during which Beulah Ruthrauff served a delicious lunch.

Betty Houston, Park avenue, will be hostess to the class Tuesday, March 10.

D. U. V. DINE WIVES AND WIDOWS

A delicious menu was served by the committee, Mrs. Margaret Hammond, Mrs. Maude Fisher, Mrs. Mary Drumm, Mrs. Mar. Kurtz, Mrs. Jesse Crooks, Mrs. Flora Sowash and Mrs. Tillie Hartman.

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans will be held Tuesday evening, March 10, in the City Building.

TUESDAY KENSINGTON MEETING DELIGHTFUL

Most delightful was the meeting of the Tuesday Kensington when the members met at the home of Mrs. J. Q. L. Roberts on Park avenue yesterday afternoon. The hostess, in her charming manner, served a very delectable menu at the dining table at 1 o'clock, and as aides, she had Mrs. Dore Kennedy and Mrs. W. H. Williams. Tall pillar tapers in cut glass holders, guarding a bowl of Spring flowers, formed the attractive centerpiece. Other details were cleverly carried out in pink and white tones.

Following the menu, the hours were spent informally with chat and music. They will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Weller, Glenmore Boulevard, on March 24.

Class Names Officers

The Etta Gilliland class of the First United Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. John Lockhart, Garfield avenue, for the regular monthly meeting and the annual reports and election of officers. Miss Minnie Sterling was associate hostess.

Mrs. Hugh Jamison presided at the business meeting and officers elected for the coming year were: president, Minnie Stirling; vice president, Nancy McConahay; secretary, Mrs. John Lockhart; treasurer, Mrs. T. L. May; teacher, Mrs. Harvey Robinson; assistant, Mrs. Margaret Hanna.

A social period with varied amusements filled in the after business hours and the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

The class will meet April 7, with Mrs. M. E. Miller, Lincoln avenue, with Mrs. Harvey Robinson and Mrs. Robert Dicks as joint hostesses.

A. A. A. Club Notes

The A. A. A. Club members met at the home of Mrs. Grover Wilson on Cherry street Tuesday, for a 1 o'clock tureen dinner. The hostess was assisted in serving the delicious menu, by Mrs. Harry Gilmore and Mrs. Harry Rankin. The table was attractively arranged in tones of the season for this purpose.

Later, tables of 500 were in play furnishing entertainment until they adjourned. Mrs. Carl Kiehn and Mrs. Dore Maull were the prize winners in this feature.

March 12, marks the date of the next gathering, when Mrs. Harry Rankin of Cherry street will be hostess.

1929 Five-Hundred Club

Members of the 1929 Five-Hundred Club were received Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Stevenson on Whippoor street, with Mrs. Elsie Miller, Mrs. Raymond Miller and Mrs. Robert L. Masters as special guests.

The usual social routine was enjoyed, spent in playing cards, with the prizes for honors being awarded to Henrietta Bishop and Mrs. McMillin at the close of play.

The hostess assisted by Helen Hart served a dainty lunch at a selecter hour.

In two weeks the club will be entertained again, the place to be decided upon later.

King's Daughters Meet

The King's Daughters of the First Methodist church held their monthly meeting in the church parlor Tuesday afternoon and at the conclusion of the routine business "Work Among Lepers" was taken up.

Miss Beulah Magruder, read an interesting paper describing the work and activities of a lepersarium in Louisiana, telling of the splendid curative results of leprosy by the use of chaulmoogra oil.

Mrs. T. A. Patterson gave a talk on the work among the lepers. April 7, will mark the date of the next meeting, when a tureen luncheon will be held in the dining room of the church.

W. B. A. 98 Card Party

The W. B. A. 98 held a card party in the K. of P. hall Tuesday evening, with the guards in charge. At the close of the evening, prizes were awarded to the following: In 500, Mrs. Helen Dunlap, Mrs. Belle Kennedy, I. C. Bowman and Glen Fox; Beano prizes went to Mrs. John Earl, Mrs. Lillian Linsley, and the special favor was presented to Miss Anna Rae.

Lunch was served at a suitable time. On Tuesday, March 10 the fifth game of the series will be held, with the W. B. A. Jr. Supervisor, Mrs. Henrietta Davis, in charge.

Ten Ivory Club

Miss Phyllis Aicone, of Clearview avenue, will receive the Ten Ivory club members in her home on Thursday evening.

TUESDAY EVENING BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Miss Della Absalom of Almira avenue proved herself a successful hostess last evening when she entertained the Tuesday Evening Bridge Club members, and one guest, Miss Erma Eckert.

Cards were played forming the main pastime, and the prizes for honors were presented to Mrs. John Streator and Mrs. William Davies at the conclusion of the game. At a late hour, the hostess served a very delicious lunch at the small tables which were prettily arranged in tones suggesting St. Patrick's day. She had as her aid, Mrs. Lewis Dean.

In two weeks, Mrs. Earl Ramsey of Winter avenue will extend hospitality to the club at her home.

Tenth Anniversary Honored

Honoring the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Wallace, of Martin street, a group of friends were entertained Monday evening at cards in celebration of the event. Prizes for scores were won by Mrs. Harrison Pitnoff and Roy Showalter.

At a late hour, a delicious lunch was served, a color scheme of pink and green being carried out in the menu and table appointments. Baskets in the shape of a Shamrock filled with candies, were given as favors. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Earl H. Pearsall, Mrs. Jack Titus and Mrs. B. R. Thomas.

A surprise shower of linens and many other useful gifts was presented the honor guests at an appropriate time, to remind them of the happy occasion.

Boland-Durbin Nuptials

At the manse of the Central Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock this morning Dr. C. B. Winger officiated in marriage Margaret Boland and Alfred Durbin of Lowellville, Ohio. The ring ceremony was used.

Mr. and Mrs. Durbin will reside in Lowellville, where Mr. Durbin is employed as an electrician.

SNYDERS ENTERTAIN HERE ON BIRTHDAY

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Snyder of 711 East Lutton street were entertained at a birthday surprise dinner given by Mrs. Snyder Tuesday evening in honor of her husband's birthday.

St. Patrick's Day decorations formed the color scheme for the occasion. Mr. Snyder is chief clerk at the local office of the Atlantic Refining Company.

The following were present at the party: W. J. White, C. B. Sproul, C. H. Porter, Harry W. Stoneman, E. L. Schwab, H. Van Ende of Grove City, G. H. Smyth and E. J. Devore of Sharon, Roy Schullmira and Elmer Thompson of Pittsburgh.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Santi Acita of Greensburg, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter Antoinetta to John DiCarlo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam DiCarlo of South Jefferson street, this city.

Miss Acita and Mr. DiCarlo obtained a marriage certificate Monday at Greensburg. A number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of the bride to celebrate the occasion on Monday evening. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Sam DiCarlo, parents of John DiCarlo of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Santi DiCarlo of Ellwood City, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick D'Auria of Greensburg and a number of other friends and relatives.

The engagement will terminate a wedding to take place sometime this spring.

Class Names Officers

Members of the W. W. M. G. class of the Third United Presbyterian church met in the church parlors Tuesday evening and named officers for the coming fiscal year.

Ernest King was selected to act as president; William McKissick, vice president; Gladys Gray, treasurer; and Maude Zeigler, secretary.

April 7, the class will meet at the home of Maude Zeigler, Thorpe street.

DOMINO CLUB HAS DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kearns, 227 Leasure avenue, were hosts Tuesday evening to the members of the Domino club.

Six small tables were set in the dining room, clever favors and appointments suggestive of St. Patrick's day, were used in decoration and a most delicious menu served from the tureens brought by the women.

Dominoes featured the hours after dinner.

Honor Daughter On Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Bert James of North Ray street entertained in a pleasing manner Tuesday, at a family dinner as a means of celebration of the ninth birthday of their daughter Phyllis. Covers marked for nine guests at the prettily decorated table with tones and favors suggesting St. Patrick's day predominating. A large cake topped with candles, graced the center.

The honor guest had as her special guest, her great grandmother, Mrs. Monira McIntyre of Plaingrove. The balance of the evening was spent informally with games and chat.

Many gifts were given Phyllis in behalf of those present, at the close of the evening.

Aurora Bridge Club

The members of the Aurora Bridge Club will be entertained tonight at the home of Miss Clara Waldman of East Washington street.

MRS. F. R. FEHL IS CLUB HOSTESS

The home of Mrs. F. R. Fehl on Northview avenue was the meeting place for associates of the O. E. A. club members Tuesday evening when they gathered for another of their social events.

Five-hundred featured the leisure hours with favors for high scores being given to Mrs. Charles Westfall and Mrs. C. E. Armstrong at the close of play. Mrs. Harry Davies was presented with the regular club prize. The hostess then served a delectable menu at the individual tables, the appointments being tastefully carried out in green and white tones.

The main feature of the meeting was the stork shower in the form of a bank account on Mary Louise, infant daughter of Mrs. Davies.

Wednesday, March 18, the club will meet with Mrs. C. E. Armstrong, North Mercer street.

Honored On 76th Birthday

A group of ladies of the Hoover Heights Tabernacle gathered at the home of Mrs. Drusilla McIntyre on Hanna street. The gathering which was also in surprise fashion, entertained informally, and presented the guest of honor with a collection of many lovely gifts in remembrance of the day.

LOOKING AHEAD

SCIENTISTS are concerned over the growth of population in this country. Figuring upon the present basis of population, and taking into consideration the medical success and surgical skill now achieved, they predict that there will be more than 325,000,000 people in the United States by the year 2000. The question then will be how to feed and house this multitude, particularly if the country continues to consume its natural resources as recklessly as it has in the past.

Every year 115,000,000 tons of coal are wasted through failure to properly utilize water power. Scientists deplore an annual land wastage of $500,000,000, the expenditure of millions to purify streams man himself pollutes, the wasting of rivers of oil through carelessness and ignorance, and the slashing of forests three times as fast as they are grown.

Yet it seems safe to predict that should there be 325,000,000 people in the United States 69 years from now, ways will be found to house and feed all of them. The United States, until recently, has been in the infancy stage, and has been unable to realize the need to conserve what appeared to be inexhaustible natural resources. Conservation, as a national policy, was almost unheard of on this side of the Atlantic until two decades ago. Since then tremendous strides forward have been made, although even today the public is profligate in the use of natural wealth.

It cannot be denied that the conservation situation is bad, although the dawn of a new era is in sight. There is no cause to worry for the comfort and happiness of the American people in the next century, but there is even now regret that a conservation policy was not adopted sooner.

TIME TO REGULATE THE SALE OF FIREARMS

No one can read of the large number of helpless men and women who are cruelly murdered by thugs and hold-up men without marveling at the ease with which these murderers are permitted to obtain weapons with which to do their deadly work. From time to time efforts have been made to secure legislation to minimize, if not cure, this state of affairs. Several bills were presented to the last General Assembly, but they all fell by the wayside.

But citizens who believe there should be a curb on the present free-and-easy method of dealing in deadly weapons are urging the passage of a suitable measure at the present session. One of the acts deals with pistols and revolvers only; it originated with the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. There is a crying need for either this or the more far-reaching Witkin bill; and a failure to pass one or the other will give citizens the impression that the General Assembly as a whole is largely indifferent to the spread and growth of crime.

There is a score of sound reasons why we should pass some kind of law and virtually it seems no good reasons to the contrary. The American Bar Association endorsed the first act on the occasion of its recent meeting in Chicago. Only a few days ago forty of the district attorneys of that many counties in Pennsylvania unanimously agreed to support the movement for the passage of a firearms bill. These men are not theorists; they know the urgent need of a law that will at least make it a little more difficult for the slayer to get the instruments with which he commits his dastardly crimes. Some persons argue that it would prevent the householder and the decent citizen from obtaining weapons with which to protect himself and his family, and that the gangster would get his gun in any event. This is a mistake. The proposed act would regulate, but not prohibit, the sale and purchase of pistols and revolvers.

The bill most favored would mean the identification of purchasers, forbid the transfer of weapons to minors and license those who carry a gun. Its passage would injure no good citizen, but would make the business of being a gangster a bit more difficult.

AMERICANS ALL

An amazing, lovable lot they are, those Americans who troop daily across the newspaper pages, perform their antics or enact their tragedies and then bow themselves into the wings to await another call. In one edition says the Omaha World-Herald we see:

An eccentric inventor who spent a fortune developing a "mystery glider," who devoted two years to his brain child, living in seclusion and hiding his work behind closed doors, and who, in his first experiment, crashed to death.

A girl child of 19 who has been the wife of one man and the companion of another, and who is denounced by the chief of detectives of a great city as a "public enemy."

A woman preacher whose strange adventures have made her virtually a national issue, who sends representatives to seek guarantees from commercial agencies, to the end that she may spread the teachings of the Carpenter of Galilee.

A United States senator who has said that a United States senator-elect is unfit to take his seat and now says waveringly, "I am not as certain as I once was of the propriety of a contest."

A vice squad policeman with 50 thousand dollars in the bank.

And so the parade goes by. Some are criminals, some are honest souls doing important work and others were somehow slighted in nature's distribution of talents. But all are Americans. If a hair on the head of any one of them were threatened by a foreign power, gunboats flying the Stars and Stripes would go scurrying to their rescue. They are, perhaps, more typical of the republic than are the thinkers and scientists and industrial leaders who are considered the leaders of our culture. They are, also, more interesting.

Many a man who refused to take "no" for an answer is writing checks for alimony.

Wall Street isn't original. The Puritan authorities made the little fellows suffer in stocks, too.

A hick town is the place where the car parked in front of the fire hydrant belongs to the banker's wife.

The objection to marrying a boy for his dad's money is that some other women may marry the old man for it.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:53. Sun rises tomorrow 6:31.

Evidently liquor is being sold in Alabama by legislative sanction, a resolution having been introduced by Representative Edgar, asking that the governor name a commission to take necessary steps to remedy matters relative to "short pints" being sold by bootleggers. It is urged that full 16 ounce pints be served customers. Just imagine a bootlegger shortchanging his customer.

Neurasthenia: A disorder of the nervous system resulting from prosperity and aggravated by sympathy.

A noted criminal had been photographed in six positions for the rogues' gallery in Philadelphia. The police having been convinced that he was the man wanted for a recent crime sent all six prints to the various police chiefs throughout the country. "The chief of a New Jersey town of 1000 inhabitants, wired to the Chief of Police in Philadelphia: 'Photographs received, the whole six are here. We have five of them locked up and expect to capture the other any minute. Send some one to complete the identification as we have not room for more than two in our jail.'

A Chicago actress came into a lawyer's office and said, 'I want a divorce.'

"Certainly," said the lawyer, "for a nominal fee. I will institute proceedings."

"What is a nominal fee?"

"Five hundred dollars," he replied. "Nothing doing," retorted the lady. "I can have him shot for ten."

When the road begins to turn the same way the car does, it can be depended on that she is making a success of her efforts to learn to drive.

A BILLION

A billion in silver dollars weighs 31,250 tons.

It would take a Treasury expert 102 years to count a billion.

A billion seconds is 31 years, 259 days, 1 hour and 40 seconds.

A billion miles is more than 10 times the distance from the earth to the sun.

The American billion is a thousand millions. The English billion is a million millions.

A billion dollars divided among all the people of the United States would give each person about $10.

If paid out in wages, a billion dollars would give work to 1,666,666 persons at $2 a day for a whole year.

If a billion silver dollars were laid out in a long line, each touching the other, they would stretch just 23,774 miles which is almost around the earth.

While lightning only strikes once in the same place, some people get thunderstruck every day.

A Chicago judge has ruled that it's O.K. for a girl to take a bath in the nude in her own backyard, and censured police who arrested her along with the boy friend who turned the hose on her to cool her hot self last August. The police were criticised for 'not minding their own business.' We'd like to see a girl take a bath in her backyard in New Castle.

It wouldn't be a bad idea for enterprising airplane manufacturers to fly a few planes down to South America. Brazil has just purchased the planes the eleven Italian aviators flew there recently at a price of $45,000 each.

Our generation eats 30 percent more food and 374 percent more sugar than our grandparents, declares the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal. The assertion about increased sugar consumption is undisputed. Sugar has taken the place of its twin brother, alcohol.

But we doubt that modern people eat about a third more food than their grandparents, who thought nothing of a pound of ham, four eggs and 35 flapjacks apiece for breakfast. One guess is that the increase goes into the garbage pail.

NOT THE BOY'S FAULT

John Johnson is the type of a farmer who has a $5,000 barn and a $1,000 house. He recently paid several hundred dollars for a pedigreed calf. He hopes to make it a prize winner at the fairs and spends much time caring for it. Johnson also has a small son about the same age as the calf. A few nights ago the son was making a good deal of noise much to the annoyance of his dad. "I wish that kid was as quiet and as easy to take care of as the calf," remarked Johnson rather gruffly. "You must remember John," replied Mrs. Johnson in her sweetest manner, "that the calf's father is a thoroughbred."

The reason few people know how a singed chicken feels is because those who wear out pajamas don't smoke in bed.

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" asked the magistrate of an Irish prisoner.

"Faith," replied Pat. "That's for a clever gentleman loike ye to found out."

A newspaper prints the story of a farmer who decided to find out just how much heat and cold a boll weevil can stand. He caught one and froze it into a cake of ice, left it there for 24 hours, then thawed the ice and was astonished to see the bug stretch its wings and walk away. He caught it again, put it under a pan on the stove and built up a good fire. The stove got red hot, the pan got red hot and evidently the weevil also got red hot. At any rate, when the farmer lifted the pan the weevil flew out the window and set fire to the barn. The moral of the yarn is not quite clear, but probably it has something to do with the old maxim: Never depend on the weather to kill bugs.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

It was a country store in Arkansas. A one-gallon customer drifted in. "Gimme a nicker's worth of asafetida." The clerk poured some asafetida into a paper bag and pushed it across the counter.

"Charge it," drawled the customer. "What's your name?" asked the clerk.

"Honeyfunker," said the clerk. "I wouldn't write asafetida and Honeyfunker for five cents."

Both Are Wonderful
Love Isn't Blind
They Stay That Way

By MARSHALL MASLIN

Nobody is looking. Nobody can hear him say it. He's far away from the wise-cracking world, so he darts to say what is in his heart. He turns to her on the crowded street, in the white sunshine, and whispers to his girl, "You're Wonderful!"

She doesn't say much. But she smiles and her cheeks turn roselike in the bright day and she squeezes his arm and whispers back, "You're Wonderful, too."

It's true. Both are wonderful. You might not think so, if you didn't know they are in love. You might say, "There's a nice girl." You might say, "That's a fine lad." You wouldn't know he is, either. But they are—because they're in love.

And love isn't blind. It is most discriminating, most magical of vision. It sees beneath that surface. It finds the tiny speck of radium in the great dull mass of pitchblende. It searches out the vein of gold in the mountain of earth, it finds what we hardly dream is there. It knows a man and a woman are wonderful, and it tells them so.

Young fellow in the crowd, girl beside him, you're wonderful. It's true. But love isn't enough. Love is only the Finder. Love says you are wonderful. Love means "You CAN be wonderful." For Love is just the beginning, that Raw Product of life you have heard so much about. You must take that Raw Product and mould it and shape it and dream over it and build it into something magnificent and beautiful. You must not fritter it away you must respect it. . . . You do not remain wonderful except by working hard, except by deserving.

People laugh at that old dear platitudinous Love that comes so unbidden to the lips, that comes so sweetly to the ears of youths and maidens in love. But it's true and these two know it's true. He is wonderful and she is wonderful, and sometimes, O you scoffers, they stay that way. Sometimes, when they are old and gray, a man and a woman who have gone over a long road together are still saying to each other: "You are Wonderful!"

Personality Of Spanish King Outstanding Amid Turmoil

Alfonso's Attempt To Meet Demands For Constitutional Government Viewed With Interest Because Of His Courage And Sympathetic Attitude

King Alfonso's personality is an important factor which complicates the situation which Spain faces, according to American opinion. He is viewed as a man of courage and good sportsmanship, against whom there can be no great popular prejudice, but it is felt that absolutism faces another defeat with the king's future uncertain when the present series of incidents shall have been closed.

"It is not probable that Alfonso will be banished from the country which he so dearly loves," thinks the SCHENECTADY GAZETTE, "nor will he flee from any dangers which may beset him there. He has shown remarkable courage time after time in facing dangers and risks. Whatever the future holds for this monarch, whether he will continue to sit upon the throne of his fathers, with his former privileges more or less curtailed, or will abdicate for the good of the people, none can say that Alfonso has not been, from first to last, the best of good sports. Even should his reign come to an end, like those of others in recent years, he would retain the world's respect, and in defeat, giving more than life for his friends, would enjoy his greatest victory."

Notwithstanding more harmonious developments of recent days, the KANSAS CITY STAR holds that "the danger of a republican revolution persists," and the TORONTO DAILY STAR, feeling that "it is not clear yet that Spain can stabilize national conditions without experiencing bloodshed," concludes that "the dictatorship appears to be played out, and ere long the people will assume a greater control over their own destinies."

"What appears to outsiders as an anomaly in the Spanish situation," according to the ATLANTA JOURNAL, "is the refusal of the liberal leaders to cooperate with the king in restoring constitutional government."

Sauerwin of Paris as criticising Alfonso's violation of the Constitution after he had sworn to respect it, and concludes: "It should be said that if there was a monarch willing to take a sportsman's chance it is Alfonso the Thirteenth of Spain. Strong he may not be, but repeatedly he has proved himself a Castilian gentleman and a descendant of Louis the Fourteenth."

Moreover, he has given ample evidences of true love for his country, mistaken as his policies were.

"Spain limped down the years," remarks the MILWAUKEE SENTINEL, "carrying on the top of its head the stupid Hapsburg-Bourbon monarchy. Alfonso represents that monarchy now. The worldwide feeling against it is not mitigated much by Alfonso's being a good fellow."

The SEATTLE DAILY TIMES comments: "Spain's actual return to parliamentary government would be a blow to absolutism in Europe. Italy and Jugo-Slavia have the real thing, while Turkey, Persia and Poland have something approaching dictatorial rule. There is a possibility that Alfonso, who has been king for a long time, the smarter politician than some of his lieutenants would have the world believe."

Referring to the fact that, "heading a coalition cabinet that largely embraces monarchists, Admiral Juan B. Aznar has undertaken to calm Spain's troubled political waters," the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS records that "practically all the political groups agree that the king's powers should be restricted sharply," and declares that the "fate of the throne appears uncertain, but it may be taken for granted that Spain would not submit to another military dictatorship."

"King Alfonso is in a tight place," agrees the CHARLESTON NEWS AND COURIER, quoting French opinion, however, that "the setting up of a republic at this time would be disastrous," and a general belief that the monarch "will emerge with his crown but with loss of kingly powers."

"The cabinet apparently is not profoundly impressed," says the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, "by threats of general strikes or new insurrections. It evidently believes that the masses of the Spanish people are monarchial at heart. The cabinet may be guilty of self-deception and excessive optimism or it may have appraised correctly the forces of radicalism and republicanism. The trouble in Spain is that the peasants and a majority of the laborers and petty traders are indifferent to politics. Illiterate, semi-feudal land tenants, and complete control of the machinery of elections by the agents of the provincial or central governments have kept Spain in a backward condition. It has not been averse in principle to dictatorships. But for economic distress and the fall in the value of the peseta the Breguer military dictatorship might have proceeded with its own leisurely plans and its superficial changes. What the new civilian dictatorship will do is likely to depend on circumstances beyond its control."

"The only prediction at all safe is that the confusion and dissatisfaction will continue for a long time," in the judgment of the DES MOINES REGISTER, while the ROANOKE TIMES states that "whether Admiral Aznar and the monarchists can pacify the country is a question that only the future can decide."

"No vital question has been solved," contends the PROVIDENCE JOURNAL, "by the establishment of this new conservative regime. The admiral and his associates do not represent the great bulk of responsible Spanish opinion. They are merely a small body of loyalists who have agreed to act as a stopgap and

DO YOU CHEAT AT CARDS?

Are you so anxious to win in a friendly card game that you arrange signals with your accepted partner? Then you are a pretty poor sport, and in a way dishonest.

It would be unwise to trust you in matters by which greater dishonesty might bring you more important rewards.

There are players who try to get sight of their opponents' cards.

In fact, they will resort to almost any despicable little trick to turn the tide their way if they can avoid being detected.

There is no real pleasure derived from play with a dishonest person.

There is bound to be the thought that such a man or woman will bear watching in any deal.

It is a shock to discover such a trait in one who has been liked and respected previously to the little card game.

There is something wrong with the one who wishes to win dishonestly.

Real men, worthy of the trust and confidence, the friendship of their fellows, have a finer sense of sportsmanship than to cheat at cards.

Think it over.

If you are dishonest in a little game, you know that you have been tempted to be dishonest in other ways.

THE SNEAK

An employer who believed in supporting all efforts to introduce a new spirit into industry had called his men together to place before them his plans for bettering working conditions.

"Now, whenever I enter the workshop," he said, "I want to see every man cheerfully performing his task, and therefore I invite you to place in this box any suggestion as to how that can be brought about."

A few days later, he opened the box and took out a sack of paper on which was written: "Take the rubber heels off your shoes."

A merry crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hartland of 1225 Huron avenue on Tuesday evening to celebrate the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hartland.

The hours were spent with music and games as the diversions. Prizes were won by Mrs. Mary Thomas, Mrs. Frank Sheffield, Mrs. Joseph Hartland, and Mrs. Helen Stickle. Later in the evening a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Joseph Hartland, Mrs. Jess Dufford and Miss Thelma Kerber. Mr. and Mrs. Hartland were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

N. E. W. Bridge Club

The N. E. W. Bridge club members were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Dunlap on Court street. Cards were enjoyed as the main diversion, and lovely prizes were awarded to Mrs. Steve Koel and Mrs. Wallace Pitzer at the close of the game.

A dainty collation, carried out in green and white appointments, was served by the hostess at a selected hour.

They adjourned to meet with Mrs. Charles Nicholas, of Ellwood City in two weeks.

Fifteenth Birthday

Honoring her daughter Harriett, on her fifteenth birthday, Mrs. C. B. Phipps of Young street entertained in a delightful manner, eight of her little friends at a party Tuesday evening. The hours were whiled away with games of a wide variety, with prizes being given to those winning in the various stunts and contests, and at a selected time, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess to her guests.

Harriett was the recipient of many beautiful gifts in memory of the day.

Y. L. B. BANQUET, AND ANNUAL ELECTION

Beautiful tables, cleverly appointed in green and white and centered with cut flowers, were arranged in the dining room of the Third United Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, with covers marked for 125 when the members of the Y. L. B. class held their annual banquet and election of officers.

Members of the W. W. M. G. class prepared and served the menu and an orchestra, under the direction of Watson Wilson, provided the musical numbers throughout the evening, with Mrs. Anna McLure leading the pep singing. Mrs. Beatrice McNicholas presided with a vocal number.

Mrs. Mary Theophilus acted as toastmaster and her introductions of the different speakers and numbers were most apt. A toast to the church was given by Mrs. Margaret Moore; to the pastor, Mrs. Lulu Koehner; to the teacher, Mrs. Kathryn Rupert and to the president, Mrs. Ethel Bates. These were responded to by Rev. S. B. Copeland, J. A. Cox and Mrs. E. S. McKibben.

A duet by Nettie Irene Mann and Edith Zeigler was most pleasing and a cornet solo by Hugh Davis was well received.

A humorous musicale was presented by Section F with Mrs. Ada Longacre, Mrs. Minnie Fullerton, Mrs. Jessie Weaver, Mrs. Nettie Forringer, Mrs. Jennie Hauffler, Mrs. Mabel Wright, Mrs. Ewell Warwick, Mrs. Alzina Kennedy, Mrs. Clara Gardner, Mrs. Carrie Sines, Mrs. Edna Mersheimer, Mrs. Maude Fisher, and Mrs. Olive McCoy taking part.

Officers chosen to serve during the coming year were: President, Mrs. Margaret Moore; vice president, Mrs. Olive McCoy; treasurer, Mrs. Kathryn Thomas; press correspondent, Mrs. Alzina Kennedy; teacher, J. A. Cox; attendance secretary, Mrs. Clara Lutz and recording secretary, Mrs. Carrie Hemminger.

Special guests included Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Copeland and G. H. Colnot.

BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. Robert P. Sawatzke of Neshannock Blvd., proved a charming hostess Tuesday evening when she entertained for Miss Rosena Rice, a bride-elect of next month.

Bride was the main diversion of the evening with high honors being awarded to Miss Rice and Julianne Mackey.

At an appropriate hour a dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Frank D. Taylor. The color scheme was carried out in yellow and white with ribbons forming a shower over the center piece of yellow tea roses and tapers. Miniature brides and grooms and dainty favors marked the places of the guests.

Mrs. John Reid, Jr., of Rochester, Pa., was an out of town guest. Miss Rice was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Alumnae Meeting At Hospital
On Tuesday evening, the Alumnae meeting was held at the New Castle hospital at 7:30 o'clock. A good number were present to take part in the various discussions, including the relief fund, and plans for the future were also given attention.

Steering Gear Gone, Italian Ship Drifts Aimlessly Is Report

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—The Italian freighter Alabama is drifting helplessly with a broken steering gear approximately 370 miles due east of the Virginia Capes, according to a wireless message picked up today by the Mackay Radio Corporation.

At 10:10 a. m., the following brief message was received from the disabled ship: "Steering gear broken. We are drifting."

The vessel's position was given as 37.50 north latitude, 67.30 west longitude.

The only Alabama listed in Lloyd's registry of shipping is an American vessel of 2,801 tons, owned by the Texas Corporation.

Mercer County To Build Bridge

Plans Drawn For Structure Are Completed By County Engineer

MERCER, Pa., Mar. 4.—An 18 foot bridge will be needed to span the stream over the Neshanock at the farm of James Richter that is now a county bridge.

The span was recently surveyed by a board of viewers who made recommendation that the county build this structure 100 percent.

Work on surveying for the plans starts at once reports Engineer F. P. Graham who says the bridge will be among those for spring letting. Until the Waterways Commission approves the plans nothing can be done.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED
Four law suits aggregating $30,000 have been filed with the prothonotary of this county. Alex Hufi and Andrew White sue the Pennsylvania company for $5,000. Hufi sues them for same amount.

F. M. Shanklin Held For Court

Bound Over To Grand Jury Under Bail Of $2,500 In Stock Sales Scheme

MERCER, Pa., Mar. 4.—F. M. Shanklin, aged 43, of Dallas, Tex., who has had a colorful record as a stock salesman in Mercer county and western Pennsylvania, has been bound over to the grand jury at Akron, O., charged with violating the "blue sky" law of Ohio it is learned here. Bond was fixed at $2,500.

The prosecutors are O. A. Porter, manager of the Akron Better Business Bureau, Inc., and Edwin Judy, attorney-inspector for the Ohio Department of Securities.

Only about $850 is involved in the charge against Shanklin, but it is the assertion of both Porter and Judy that his operations have been widespread throughout Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, where he has been selling stock in Akron Bricklite Company, American Bricklite Company of Sharon, and various other concerns bearing similar titles.

Rough Waves "Tough" On Sail Fish Party

Jack Gerson the well known gem shop owner of this city can ride a horse, bicycle, roller skate and jolt in a speeding automobile without suffering the least effects but once he rides a yacht miles from shore to sail fish.

That is another story; at least Jack will admit it is.

He returned recently from the Southland and while in the land of Sunshine and oranges spent several weeks at Miami.

Jack and several of his friends from New York and Pittsburgh decided early one morning that not having had any sail fishing it would be an appropriate time to board a sail fishing boat and ride the gulf.

They purchased half a dozen chickens, dozens of sandwiches and in fact had a feast ready whenever they decided that they had had enough sail fish. They were to have motion pictures made of their return—laden with sail fish.

So they tied to the wharf and within a few moments were aboard a yacht which rode the quiet waves splendidly and in fact didn't give an inkling of what was to come. Before long the toot! toot! of the siren sounded. Off they were.

The yacht plunged forward and put miles to her stern. For the first 35 or more miles Jack and his companions sought the sail fish and rode easy, high, wide and fancy.

They were as happy as mermaids gazing into mirrors.

Thirty miles out of Miami Beach, things began to happen. Jack noticed his companions growing pale beyond their natural complexion and inquiry developed that they felt "sorta funny."

"One by one they disappeared until only one and Jack was left."

Here, Jack, pull out this sail fish" shouted the captain as Jack's friend reached to save his false teeth before they went into the ocean.

"Can't do it, Captain, but if you'll turn this boat into shore you'll earn the easiest 50 'bucks' you ever got!" Jack shouted back to the captain.

At first the captain tried to talk Jack into a continuation of the sail fishing cruise but not for Jack.

He had seen his companions disappear, knowing only too well the reason so he wanted to set his feet on shore pronto.

The captain however, turned the boat toward shore and when they arrived—

No, the motion pictures were not taken. Instead of having sail fish, they had forlorn looks and the chickens, sandwiches and other foodstuffs.

Probabilities are that the next time the party goes sail fishing they'll try to fortify themselves against sea sickness, even though its only 35 miles out.

Treasury Employee Under Arrest For Converting Funds

Charles Solomon, 28, Employee Of Pittsburgh City Treasurers Office Held

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 4.—Claxing a rapid-fire investigation into charges of tax-payers, listed as delinquent, that their taxes had been paid, Charles Solomon, 28, formerly assistant cashier in the city treasurer's office was held under $5,000 bond today on charges of fraudulent conversion and forgery.

Solomon was arrested when an investigation disclosed that he had converted $3,000 in the last two months to his own use, according to Treasurer Roy D. Schooley.

The arrest and alleged confession of Solomon that he had lost the money gambling, came less than 24 hours after the taxpayers had complained.

The probe began when several property owners, listed in the delinquent tax list, protested their taxes had been paid. Solomon was alleged to have met friends waiting in line to pay their taxes and offered to relieve them of the wait by taking the money and tendering a forged receipt, Schooley said.

Man Wants Divorce, Wife Is Neglectful

William D. King, Pittsburgh, Goes To Court Seeking Divorce

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 4.—His wife spent little time at their home since their marriage in 1907, according to the bill of particulars filed by William D. King in connection with his suit for divorce from Mrs. Sarah Jane King of Mercer. King charges cruelty and indignities and desertion.

He gave her $52 for family expenses on their wedding day, June 27, 1907, and she spent $25 for her own debts, he averred. She made frequent visits of one and two weeks' duration to her mother's home in Butler until the death of her mother in 1929, according to the bill, and from 1908 to '913 spent most of her home time at neighbors' houses and neglected her own home.

King asserted they occupied separate rooms since 1915 and frequently did not speak for long intervals. He also averred that his wife threw a knife at him in 1916 and uttered threats to poison or shoot him.

She deserted him in 1916 and after a reconciliation at a house he furnished in Pittsburgh finally deserted him in April, 1924, according to the bill.

Health Better Than Riches

"Before I was married, my mother and sister and I did all the farming work on a 64-acre farm for eleven years. I married a farmer and now in addition to my housework and the care of my children I help him with the outside work on our farm. After my last child was born, I began to suffer as many women do. Our family doctor gave me medicine but no results. One day he told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did and now I am a new is better than riches."—Mrs. Clyde I.

LAWTHER TO COACH FOOTBALL, BASKETBALL AT WESTMINSTER

Former Titan Mentor To Return To Local College In July

JOHN D. LAWTHER

(Special To The News) NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 4.—John D. Lawther, popular graduate of Westminster College, has been appointed head coach of football and basketball at Westminster College, his alma mater for next year. Attorney James J. Stranahan, Mercer, president of the newly reorganized athletic council, stated late last night following a meeting here of that council, Stranahan's announcement brings to an end many rumors current in the district for the last month about Titus coaches for next season.

Attorney Stranahan stated that complete reorganization of athletics at Westminster, started with the reorganization of the athletic council a month ago, is culminated in Lawther's appointment. In all probability, Lawther will also be an assistant professor of psychology in the college, thus tying up sports and scholarship as Westminster officials desire.

Lawther, who taught psychology and coached basketball for five years at Westminster, resigning last spring to accept a position as coach of the Freeport, Long Island, high school team so that he could continue his graduate work toward a Ph. D. degree at New York University will assume his duties at Westminster in July.

He will replace D. V. "Dike" Breda, Carnegie Tech star who has been coach of football for the last five seasons and who resigned recently to devote his time to his insurance business in Youngstown, O., and Lawrence "Pops" Harrison, University of Iowa star, who has been offered a position with a well-known school.

Lawther's Freeport high school football team won nine games in succession last fall, the team being scored upon only once and that in the last quarter of the game. His Freeport high basketball team has already won the Long Island district championship with 16 victories out of 17 games played.

While at Westminster, from 1926 to 1930, Lawther was director of head basketball coach, and instructor in psychology. His basketball team won 86 out of 97 contests played and twice won the Tri-State conference championship.

Lawther played football, basketball, and baseball as a student at Westminster. He was center of Titan grid teams under DeOrmond "Tuss" McLaughry, now of Brown and McLaughry claims he was one of the best grid players he ever coached. Lawther twice captained the Westminster football team and twice named all-district center.

Graduated in 1919 He was graduated from Westminster in 1919 after which he taught and coached at the Hubbard O. high school. He was supervising principal and coach of athletics at the New Wilmington high school from 1922 to 1926.

Lawther received his M. A. Degree from Columbia University in 1926. Since then he has taken graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Chicago, and New York University.

The athletic council, composed of representatives of the board of trustees, alumni, faculty and students, includes: Attorney James A. Stranahan, Mercer, president; I. A. Pitzer, New Wilmington, vice president; A. A. McDonald, New Wilmington, secretary; Howell T. Getty, New Wilmington, treasurer; Dr. William Cleland, New Castle; Dr. C. D. Fulton, Beaver; Dr. J. A. Swindler, New Wilmington; Michael Koehran, Duquesne and Louis Perceney, Turtle Creek.

High Standards Required Of All Army Recruits

Army Does Not Care For Young Men Sentenced To It For Disciplinary Reasons

The United States army is not the dumping ground for young men who have made some mistake in life that has resulted in their being haled into court and resulted in the suggestion that they join the army to get needed discipline to correct their tendencies toward crime, according to the data just issued from the headquarters of the Third Army corps recruiting service at Baltimore, Md., and received by Sergeant J. W. Thompson, officer in charge of the army recruiting office, room 303, St. Cloud building.

The item issued is self-explanatory and follows: "A warning has been issued to all army recruiting agencies in the states of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia and the District of Columbia against an 18-year-old Somerset, Pa., youth seeking enlistment in the army, from the recruiting headquarters, Third Corps Area, Baltimore, Md. This action was taken following the receipt of newspaper accounts to the effect that a Somerset judge had given the youth the choice of an enlistment in the army or navy or a term in jail for auto stealing.

"The army is not given for men of questionable character and no more effective means to bar enlistment therein could be taken than by conviction for crime, recruiting officers pointed out. Recruiting standards were never higher, they said, than at the present time, and any applicant for enlistment must present testimonials of good character vouched for in writing by well known reputable citizens of the community in which the applicant resides.

"In passing sentence on the youth in question, the Somerset judge is quoted as having administered a reprimand and suggested that he join the army or navy where he might learn some discipline. Failure to do so within three months would result in the youth's recall and a jail sentence imposed, according to the news accounts.

Lack of familiarity with the high standards of character required and the fact that a man cannot be sentenced to join the army is blamed by recruiting officers for the action of the court in such cases."

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Letters Intended For This Column Must Be Signed With Name And Address Of Writer

New Castle, Pa., March 3, 1931.

Mr. Fred L. Bentz, News Company. Dear Sir:—

The board of session of the Third U. P. church at its regular meeting for March adopted the following resolution:

That we express to "The News" our deepest appreciation for their fearless and public "front page" way of dealing with the items concerning the 18th amendment.

Their righteous attitude in the matter of prohibition is to be highly commended at a time when so many publications are unfair in this respect.

Very sincerely yours, A. J. MINNICK, Clerk of Session, Third U. P. Church.

IN AGAIN OUT AGAIN. (International News Service)

NEW LEXINGTON, O., Mar. 4.—Mrs. Clifford Wilson, matron of the Perry county jail here and wife of the sheriff, has become so accustomed to feeding Floyd "Tug" Wilson that she knows just what satisfies him on the menu each day in the week.

Wilson's life, she claims, is nothing more than in again and out again. Wilson has a record of being placed in the jail 23 times in two years and was recently arrested and imprisoned for the fifth time in as many weeks.

Ninety-three per cent of all stolen cars are recovered, according to New Castle Auto Club, an A. A. A. affiliation.

Relief Starts for Needy Vets

Within ten minutes of the time that the Senate overrode President Hoover's veto, the machinery of relief for needy veterans was set in motion. Above picture shows, left to right, H. W. Breining, Assistant Director of the Bureau, Colonel George E. Jams, Director of the Bureau, and J. V. Byrne, Chief of the Loans Division, as they mailed the first bonus check to a veteran in Baltimore, Md.

First Review of Honor Guard

For the first time since he was appointed to the high rank of Chief of Staff of the United States Army, General Douglas MacArthur reviewed his honor guard at Fort Myer, Va. The youthful commander is shown as he was accompanied during the review by Col. Harry N. Coates (right), commanding officer at Fort Myer.

CATARH IS DANGER TO THE SYSTEM

Not a Minor Complaint, But a Serious Disease and Health Wrecker

CAUSES OF NASAL CATARRH RELATED

IS ONE OF THE MOST COMMON FORMS AND OFTEN LEADS TO SERIOUS RESULTS

One of the most common kinds of catarrh is the chronic nasal form. This condition may result from repeated attacks of cold in the head or it may follow typhoid fever, scarlet fever, measles or some other prostrating disease which leaves the system weakened.

The mucous membranes of the nose and air passages of the head become permanently thickened and the glands diseased. There is the constant ejection from the nose and throat of a thick,ropy substance, or, in some cases, the discharge is watery, thin and irritating.

The victim often suffers from headache, liver, kidney, bladder and bowel trouble, rheumatism and many other ailments, or may experience a dull, heavy fullness or pressure in the head. Memory often fails and the disposition becomes irritable and despondent. The mental faculties suffer and in some cases insanity finally results.

World's Tonic is a systemic treatment to help fight catarrh. It not only quickly relieves distress at the point where the catarrh exists, but at the seat of the trouble within the system and has brought astonishing results in countless cases.

World's Tonic is sold in New Castle at Ecker's, McKee's, Paisley, Smith's drug store. (A-118).

College Typists Jazz Up Machines

Popular Music Stimulates Speed Of Students In Commercial Department

GROVE CITY, Mar. 4.—Commercial students of Grove City College now type their lessons in typewriting to the rhythm of popular music. Installation of a phonograph equipped with records of snappy music is stimulating the daily lessons.

Students look forward to the daily practice periods during which they type the stereotyped lines calculated to instruct them in letter locations on the key-board.

Pupils advance faster and develop a liking for the course as a result of this installation say the instructors.

START TOURNAMENT

Opening this evening in the gymnasium of Grove City College is the sixteenth annual tournament of Mercer County High Schools. There are three nights of elimination contests concluded by the championship game of Saturday evening.

The county winner represents the district in the north-western tournament which follows next week.

Sharon, Farrell, Sharpville, Mercer, Greenville and Grove City are the class A group scheduled. Hickory and Jamestown the winner and runner-up of the Class B event just held are also bracketed.

CRIME AT LOW EBB

Crime conditions here are at a low ebb is the report of Police Chief Charles Ray who says that even motor violations are reduced in number. Ten years has failed to develop a similar condition the police records show.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Announcement is made of the marriage of Louise Shellito and Kirby Gould today by the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shellito.

The ceremony was solemnized on January 31, 1930 at Brookville, Rev. J. John Rinker being the officiating clergyman.

Both are well known in the Grove City community where they are highly popular.

SCHEDULE EVENTS

Two important social functions are scheduled for the spring season at Grove City College. The Junior Prom which rates the big social event of the year is carded for Mar. This will be followed by the Pen-Hellenic Dance in April. The Pen-Hellenic is an organization representing all college fraternities.

Constable Found Guilty In Court As Safe Cracker

Fostoria, Ohio, Constable Will Make An Appeal For New Trial

(International News Service) TIFFIN, O., Mar. 4.—Convicted on a charge of attempting to "crack" a safe in a Fostoria loan office, Constable Everett Steadman, 38, of Fostoria, was in jail today pending arguments on a new trial motion.

Steadman was the first of three accused men, two of whom were peace officers, to be tried on the charges. Former Police Capt. John Kovaschitz and Earl A. Adams, factory worker, have not been brought to trial. They are at liberty under bond of $2,500 each.

The constable was found guilty by a jury after three finger print experts testified that prints found in the loan office after the safe cracking attempt were identical with Steadman's.

GRANT CITY

The members of the Zion church held a chicken supper at Worth Grange hall on Friday evening. The event was well attended and an enjoyable evening was spent by those present.

Utility Profits Will Be Probed

Senate Committee Will Call Attaches To Show Reasons For Big Profits

ANNUAL REPORTS ARE MADE READY

By WILLIAM J. CROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Mar. 4.—Instead of devoting the majority of its time to listening to exchange of unpleasantness between counsel the senate committee today hopes to continue its investigation of the public service commission by hearing the testimony of several attaches.

The committee also expects to delve deeper into the mystery by which a utility company, supposedly under regulation of the commission is able to pile up profits of a much as 60 percent a year.

B. Fred Morgel, chief of the commission's bureau of accounts, hopes to have the annual reports of the six companies which govern the Gifford-Pinchot mentioned in a form in which they can be understood easily by committee members.

A statement from the commission has denied that any large utility company has made unwarranted profits and today's testimony should prove or disprove the Pinchot charges.

Louis Tevel, acting secretary of the commission and F. Herbert Snow, chief of the engineering bureau, also will be called to offer additional testimony during the day.

PICKS WRONG MAN.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Mar. 4.—Mike Gabos, 28, was "out of luck" when he picked the home of Harry I. Miller, organizer and secretary of the Helping Hand Association, to ask for alms. Gabos explained he didn't go to the association for aid with a picturesque exposition of alleged treatment given the inmates. Miller called police and Mike was locked up as a suspicious person. The Helping Hand Association feeds and lodges 1,500 persons daily.

LOOKING BACK

IN NEW CASTLE

It's a good guess that there are not a great many people who remember those good old days when Merle J. Harris, 826 East Washington street, sold the New Castle News on the streets of the city.

But it's an equally good guess that Mr. Harris remembers that time and many other interesting events that have occurred here since shortly after his birth here July 18, 1874.

Mr. Harris was born in Mullettown, near Greenwood Cemetery. He attended Mullettown School in 1882 and 1883. The name of his teacher was McCombs. He went to the Jefferson street school in 1884. Among his schoolmates there were Thomas Dickey and Reed Megown.

He sold The News from 1884 to 1888, also the New Castle Courier and the Pittsburgh Leader. He has a picture taken on the east side of North Mill street opposite the then location of The News, corner of North Mill and Sycamore Way to prove this fact. His newsboy companion included Jack McCarty, Dennis McCormick, Reed Megown, Cooney Gunsley. Among his customers were Dr. Mont Linville, Dr. Lee and many others.

He passed bills for R. M. Allen in 1887. He recollects when the cob-blestones on Washington street were cleaned by the fire department and the money marbles and other stuff the boys found in following the cleanup gang.

One of the things he remembers is the hill climbing contest on Jefferson street hill in the eighties. Two kinds of bicycles were used, one kind with the big wheel in front and the other with the little wheel in front. He also remembers the big flood of 1885 or 1886, which came up to Jefferson street.

Another recollection is that of the bread line in 1884 at the city building, when those in line received a loaf of bread, one half dozen potatoes, can of molasses and a little coffee. He also remembers when Aleck Sankey brought sand from near Harbor Bridge on the Shenango River on sand boats which were drawn by mules or horses from the towpath. He also remembers when the first railroad was laid along the same path. He carried spikes from Elm street to near the Water Works for $1 a day in 1884. His father made $1 a day tending ten or twelve horses and driving a hearse.

He also remembers when Billie Rouse, Frank Allerton and Ross Carson were the boss bootblacks and made money at ten cents a shoe. Those were the times.

Hoover Vetoes Norris Muscle Shoals Power Project; Gives Reasons

Determined Government Will Not Enter Competition With Citizens

Hoover Against Spending Millions Of Dollars For Federal Operation

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—President Hoover Tuesday vetoed the Norris bill for operation of the power and nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Ala., giving as his primary reason a determination that the government shall not enter into any business "the major purpose of which is competition with our citizens."

He also disapproved the measure on engineering and financial grounds, but he made it clear that the principal objection was government ownership and operation.

Policy Of Ownership
"This bill would launch the Federal Government upon a policy of ownership and operation of power utilities upon a basis of competition instead of by the proper government function of regulation for the protection of all the people," his message said.

"I hesitate to contemplate the future of our institutions of our government, and of our country if the preoccupation of its officials is to be no longer the promotion of justice and equal opportunity but is to be devoted to barter in the markets. That is not liberalism. It is degeneration."

Mr. Hoover admitted that agitation against the conduct of the power industry was involved in the question, but added:

"The power problem is not going to be solved by the Federal Government going into the power business, nor is it to be solved by the projects in this bill. The remedy for abuses in the conduct of that industry lies in regulation and not by the Federal Government entering upon the business itself."

Infringement of Rights
The President charged further that the Norris bill was a direct infringement of states' rights.

"This bill," he said, "distinctly proposes to enter the field of powers reserved to the states. It would deprive the adjacent states of the right to control rates for this power and would deprive them of taxes on property within their borders and would invade and weaken the authority of local government."

As a counter proposal and solution of the problem, Mr. Hoover suggested that the states of Alabama and Tennessee set up a commission of their own representatives to "with representatives from the national farm organizations and the corps of army engineers; such commission to be vested with full authority to lease the plants at Muscle Shoals 'in the interest of the local community and agriculture generally.'"

"It could lease the nitrate plants to the advantage of agriculture," he said. "The power plant is today earning a margin over operating expenses. Such a commission could increase this margin without capital outlay and should be required to use all such margins for the benefit of agriculture."

Tennessee Effected
"The real development of the resources and the industries of the Tennessee Valley can only be accomplished by the people in that valley themselves. Muscle Shoals can only be administered by the people upon the ground, responsible to their own communities, directing their communities and not for purposes of pursuit of social theories or national policies. Any other course deprives them of liberty."

The government's contribution, he said, would be construction of Cove Creek Dam as a regulatory measure for the flood protection of the Tennessee Valley and the development of its water resources, but only on the same basis as those imposed at Boulder Canyon—that is, that construction should be undertaken at such time as the proposed commission is able to secure contracts for use of the increased water supply to power users or the lease of the power produced as a by-product from such a dam on terms that will return to the government interest upon its outlay with amortization."

Would Need Millions

The President went exhaustively into the financial and engineering burdens should the government undertake operation of the power plant. He estimated a total requirement of about $100,000,000 in new money would be necessary from the Federal treasury, even if no further extensions of the project were undertaken.

He estimated the cost of government production and distribution of power would be about 9.1 mills per kilowatt-hour. Then stating that it is impossible to compute Muscle Shoals income on a basis including retail sale of power—that is to the individual household—he said:

"Assuming that the whole 1,000,000 kilowatt-hours should be sold to municipalities or other power distributors, it would be on the basis of the realizations of the private companies of 7.2 mills yield, a gross annual income to this project of about $7,200,000, or a loss upon this basis of nearly $2,000,000 annually."

Rates Would Be Cut

"This territory is now supplied with power and to obtain such an income it would be necessary to take the customers of the present power companies. To secure these customers it would be necessary to undercut the rates now made by them. It is difficult to estimate the extent to which it would be necessary to go in such rate cutting in order to secure the business. In any event it would of course diminish estimated income and increase the losses."

Insofar as the second feature of the bill—that one directing the President within 12 months to lease the nitrate plant to private interests for manufacture of fertilizer or else undertake government operation of that, too—President Hoover dismissed either alternative.

"Inquiries have been made of the most responsible and experienced concerns that might possibly undertake such lease and they have replied that under the conditions set out in the bill it is entirely impractical for them to make any bid," he said. "The leasing provision is therefore of no utility; it may at once be dismissed. In consequence the project we have to consider under this bill is the manufacture of fertilizers by the Federal Government."

Plant Is Obsolete

In this latter connection, Mr. Hoover pointed out that the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant largely was obsolete and would need new machinery and a new process.

"It can be stated with assurance that no chemical industry with its constantly changing technology and equipment, its intricate problems of sales and distribution, can be successfully conducted by the government," he concluded.

And, as a final objection to the set-up in the Norris bill, the President ridiculed the idea of getting three men at $7,500 the first year and $5,000 thereafter, not more than two from a political party, to serve as the management.

"Three men able to conduct a one hundred and fifty million dollar business can not be found to meet these specifications."

Will Exhume Body Of Draves Girl To Make Examination

Defense Counsel At Murder Trial Granted Request For Examination

(International News Service)
REYNOLDS, Ind., Mar. 4.—On a sloping hillside in Lutheran cemetery here grave diggers went to work today to disinter the body of 18 year old Arlene Draves, for whose murder at a young people's liquor party in Gary her former sweetheart, Virgil Kirkland, is now on trial.

The body was ordered exhumed by Judge Grant Crumpacker before whom the murder trial is being conducted at Valparaiso after defense attorneys entered a motion for its disinterment on the plea that medical examination by a new post mortem may show evidence favorable to Young Kirkland.

It was the contention of the defense that certain vital organs which Coroner's Physician James N. Burgham testified he had removed and examined, had in reality never been touched and that a further examination will show contributing cause to the death of Arlene.

SEEKING LARGER FUND FOR JAMESON HOSPITAL

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 4.—Forty thousand dollars for the Jameson Memorial Hospital is asked for in a bill presented Tuesday to the House of Representatives by Bart Richards. The bill represents an increase over the appropriation for the present biennium of $16,000.

The reasons for the increase asked are that the Jameson Memorial Hospital has done far more charity work than its allowance of $24,000 for the two years just ending shows. This appropriation, made in 1929 on a basis of the work done by the old Shenango Valley Hospital and an estimate of what was to be done by the new hospital. In the closing days of the Shenango Valley's work, and in the first six months of the new hospital's work, the appropriation seemed to be about right, but in the past year the amount of charity work done has exceeded by almost 10 per cent.

Applications For Bonus Loans Takes Big Slump Today

Over Hundred Applications Handled Tuesday At Red Cross Office

Applications for bonus loans took a big slump this morning after a three-day rush, which was greater than had been anticipated.

It is believed that a majority of those who intend applying for loans have taken advantage of the fact, as only a handful of men were around this morning to file their papers. Tuesday was the biggest day since the rush has started, 116 veterans making application during the day. The office was kept open last evening to accommodate those who were unable to get in during the daytime, and there were 14 who applied at this time.

The Red Cross office will be kept open this evening between the hours of 6 and 8 p. m. for the benefit of those who were unable to get around last night, when it is believed that the present rush will be cleaned up.

Around 450 veterans from New Castle and Lawrence county have made application for the amount available under the new law, about 100 of these having been filled out in advance. As yet, no veterans have received their checks here, but the first ones are expected during the latter part of the week.

Thief Steals Suit And Fine Overcoat

Leaves His Old Discarded Clothing At Scene Of Theft

S. N. Griffith, 117 East Lincoln avenue, when he was awakened by a noise this morning about five o'clock, thought it was some of the children of the house going to the bath room and thought no more about it, until he got up.

Then he found his dark gray suit and overcoat missing and finally down in the kitchen, an old suit and overcoat.

The police were called and made the investigation. They found that the thief had gained admission by forcing a rear window.

On securing the suit and overcoat, the thief had carefully eliminated the possibility of identifying the stolen clothing by cutting out the labels. This had been done in the kitchen of the home as the labels were found on the floor there with the old clothing which he discarded in putting on his new stolen apparel.

Nothing else of value was found to be missing.

Suffered Twenty Years Tells Of Relief At Last

R. D. No. 7 Lady Deeply Grateful For Results Given By New And Different Medicine

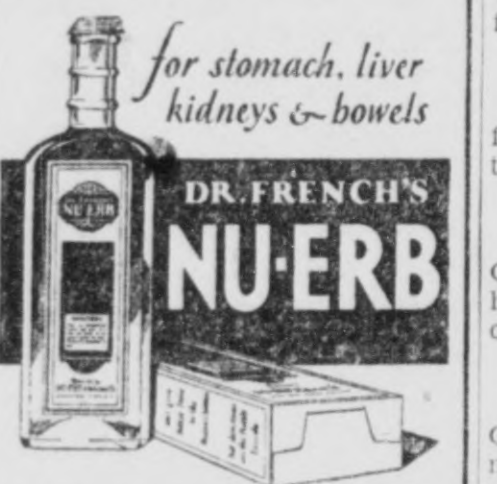

"After I have suffered for so many years from stomach troubles that caused me continual misery, it is wonderful to have found relief," said Mrs. Nettie Law, R. D. No. 7, West Pittsburg, in a recent interview.

"For twenty years, I have lived in fear of indigestion and trouble with my stomach. I worried continually because of pains around my heart which I now know, were caused by gas formations, but at times they were almost unbearable. I was troubled with dizzy spells. I was extremely nervous. I couldn't sleep nights and I felt tired and weak all of the time.

"I know that persons who suffer as I did, will be happy to learn about this Nu-Erb. It has relieved me of all that pain and distress and has made me feel like a different person. I can now eat without fearing any bad after effects. I am not nervous. My system is stronger in every way and I feel as though I had been given a new lease on life. I cannot recommend Nu-Erb too highly and I advise anyone who suffers as I did to use it."

Wherever Nu-Erb is known, hundreds of men and women just like Mrs. Law, find that this new medicine actually does give results and that in nearly all cases, new feelings of health come in a perfectly natural way. Nu-Erb is pleasant to take and the results are quickly felt.

Eckerd's Cut Rate Store, is the only place in New Castle where Nu-Erb may be purchased. Go see the Nu-Erb man now located there and let him explain to you the merits of this remarkable medicine.

LIVES WITH BULLET IN HIS HEART

There are few persons who have experienced the sensation of a bullet piercing their heart and living to tell the tale. Virgil Bennett, 18, right, above, of Halls Summit, Kas., is one of them. A shot from a rifle, accidentally discharged by his brother, Darrell, 13, left, entered just below Virgil's ear, was deflected down and inward, through the esophagus to the heart, where it imbedded itself into the outer lining of his heart. Since the bullet started no infection it was allowed to remain there, where it has sealed itself. Physicians at Kansas City, Kas., where Virgil was taken, say the bullet never will cause him the slightest trouble and his life expectancy is the same as if he did not carry a projectile in his heart.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—Political rivalry and bitterness of the 71st congress was to be buried in the strains of "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Sweet Adeline" in the house today.

With the two-year-life of the congress expiring at noon, Republicans and Democrats united in presenting a musical program designed to test the vocal power of the members.

With Rep. Clifton Woodrum (R) of Virginia as master of ceremonies and the Marine orchestra playing the program included solos by Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen of Florida, Rep. Connery (D) of Massachusetts and Woodrum.

The old-fashioned song fest included such tunes as "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Beautiful Ohio," "Iowa, Where the Tall Corn Grows," "On the Banks of the Wabash," "Sweet Rosy O'Grady," "Sidewalks of New York," "Moonlight on the Colorado," "Sweet Adeline," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," and "Goodnight Ladies."

With some 85 "lame ducks" defeated in the last election, taking their farewell, the ceremonies were to close with singing "God Be With You, 'Til We Meet Again."

Almira Home Board Meets On Tuesday

The board of directors of the Almira Home met at the home Tuesday afternoon for the monthly meeting with Mrs. J. L. Stratton in the chair.

A bequest of $500 was reported from Mrs. Harry Smith of Franklin Her son, Walter A. Smith, said his mother had always been intensely interested in the splendid work carried on by this organization and at the time of her death, remembered them.

A short time ago the state inspector visited at the home and after carefully going over the building from furnace room to third floor, he pronounced the home in perfect condition and lauded the management, saying that in all Pennsylvania this home for aged ladies stood at the head of the list when it came to keeping the home in shape.

The sun parlor at the home has been finished for some time, but as yet has not been furnished and at yesterday's meeting a committee was appointed to look after this matter. Mrs. W. A. Strimater, Mrs. H. C. Harper, Mrs. B. P. Butler, Mrs. G. R. Balph and Mrs. R. G. Maxwell will take this in hand and it is expected by April 1 that the furniture will all be put into position.

Plans were also discussed for the spring house cleaning, and in a short time the work of cleaning and repainting will be begun.

Bankers Will Dine At New Wilmington

Lawrence county bankers will assemble in New Wilmington for a joint meeting with fellow bankers of Mercer county on Friday, March 20. Plans for the inter-association affair are now in the formation stage. Definite plans will be worked out when President Joel S. McKee meets with the executive committee next week some time.

Tentative arrangements call for a dinner in the United Presbyterian church with an address by a noted college economist following. The address will take place in the Westminster chapel.

HAVE PUBLIC HEARING ON NEW ELECTIONS CODE BILL

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 4.—Tuesday was a day of public hearings in the general assembly. Following the close of the session at noon, hearings were held in various rooms of the capitol, upon bills which had attracted the attention of the public at large.

In the senate chamber, a public hearing was held on the proposed elections code, proposed in the senate by Senator Frank J. Harris and in the house by Representative D. Glenn Moore. The hearing was presided over by Senator Ely of Somerset county and proponents and opponents of the bill given the opportunity to present their claims.

Alber Maris of Philadelphia was the chief spokesman for the proponents of the bill and presented the reasons why in his judgment and the judgment of the organizations backing the bill, it should be passed. There was no general opposition to the bill, only a few minor clauses being objected to.

If the bill passes it will be the most forward step in Pennsylvania elections since the inception of the direct primaries. The bill provides permanent registration, safeguards the casting of ballots, ends assistance to voters except to those physically disabled, outlaws watchers at the polls and reduces election expenses in many instances.

While the elections hearing was going on a hearing was being held on the resolution of Representative Darlington Hoopes, Socialist member of Berks county, which would have the legislature memorialize congress to pass the Frazier constitutional amendment which would forever prohibit congress from declaring war. This was attended by many women representing peace societies. It is probable that the resolution will not come out of committee.

At the same time, a hearing was being held in the hall of the house upon the proposed bill of Representative M. A. Dunn of Allegheny county which would have the state appropriate $10,000,000 for unemployment relief. This was attended by representatives of the various labor organizations of the state who called attention to conditions in the various industries and sections of the state. This hearing was before the joint house and senate appropriations committee.

Following this hearing, a hearing was held on the proposed legislation which would give Allegheny county two additional law judges. This was bitterly assailed and as bitterly defended by lawyers and citizens of Allegheny, the chief argument against it being that it was a political move to pay debts in the appointment of the judges. The bill has already passed the senate and will likely be reported out and pass the house.

One request for a public hearing was denied, this being the request of Representative Darlington Hoopes of Berks county for a public hearing on his bill to provide unemployment payments to men and women who are out of work. The request for a hearing was denied upon the grounds that the bill was unconstitutional and would need a constitutional amendment, that it was a parallel bill to the English dole system, and that the state was unable at this time to provide the 80 million dollars which the bill carries. Under the provisions of the bill, employers would be forced to pay 50 per cent of an employee's wages to him when he was idle. The minimum amount to be paid to a man with a family would be $12.50. The bill would not apply to those making more than $3000 per year.

With all the hearings going on, the senate investigating committee held its session Tuesday, but discussion developed. The counsel for the commission, Attorney C. J. Hepburn, suggested that the whole thing be dropped and another commission appointed, charging that this one was surrounded by politics.

The senate investigating commission seems to be running out of something to investigate, and with the announcement that the house commission is to start functioning Thursday morning, the impression seems to be that the fireworks will all come from this commission.

"Our Army" Points To City Guard As Ideal Troop Unit

National Journal Presents Paper On "The Ideal Unit" With "F" As Goal

Declared by the editor of "Our Army" as a distinct contribution to our national defense, an article by Captain Ambrose F. White entitled, "The Ideal Unit" appearing in the March issue of the periodical, outlines and points to Troop F 103rd Cavalry of New Castle as the logical example of such a unit.

The article, regarded as an important paper on the National Guard, advocates a civilian sponsor group like the civilian military committee of New Castle to guide the destinies of the guardsmen.

An excerpt from the article reads: "It was through this plan (sponsor committee) that the Cavalry Unit, Troop F, 103rd Cavalry, Pennsylvania National Guard, New Castle, Pa., secured the highest type of personnel, jumped to 100 per cent in morale, made enviable records in attendance and increased in efficiency beyond all expectations."

"The community of New Castle is to be commended most highly for what they have done and what they are doing. Mr. Louis Round, chairman of the civilian executive committee is also to be commended for his assistance in furthering this plan for the military men of the Guard. This plan works in theory and practice. Mr. Round and his associates have shown us that the impossible can be accomplished and that the word 'can't' has no place in the military game."

The article states that: "In any community, especially an industrial community, a uniformed military unit is of incalculable benefit." Captain White's article in the magazine is complete with photographs of Mr. Round's committee, Captain Harvey G. Bintrim, the commander of "F", the entire troop and a scene of a stunt performance on horseback by local guardsmen.

Wolves Club Hears Interesting Talk

Attorney Frank O. Moretti Talks On Wills And Estates At Meeting

Regular semi-monthly meeting of the Wolves Club was held last evening at the Elk's Club with a good attendance of the members. Dinner was enjoyed first, after which Attorney Joseph Letta Jr., first vice-president assumed charge, in the absence of the president D. D. Valenti. The meeting was then turned over to Frank S. Summers, chairman of the program committee, who introduced Attorney Frank Moretti as the speaker of the evening.

Attorney Moretti had as his subject "Wills and Estates" and gave a most interesting talk on what will mean, how they should be made and the manner in which estates may be disposed of. Following his address, there was a general discussion, in which many questions were asked and answered.

James V. Lombardo, a new member was then introduced and spoke briefly. Dr. P. Prioletti announced that the directors had decided to start the meetings at 6:30 p. m. instead of 6 p. m. The question of a dinner date after Easter was also considered and will be acted on by the committee later.

Those present at the meeting were A. R. Clerich, Anthony Sacco, Alfonso Scarazzo, Dr. A. M. Perifano, Peter P. Capitola, H. A. Fazzino, Joseph Bordonaro Jr., T. W. Navarra, Erick H. Scarazzo, Leopold DeFiore, Frank O. Moretti, Frank C. Summers, Joseph Letta Jr., James V. Lombardo, Dr. J. P. Prioletti, A. N. Curbon, Patsy Colucci, Sam Donic, Francis DeSanctis, Dr. Warren V. ## Alfred P. Gibbs Addresses Audience

Evangelistic Services Open In First Baptist Church With Large Crowd

Attendance was very good at the opening service of the evangelistic services at the First Baptist church last night. Evangelist Alfred P. Gibbs of Johannesburg, South Africa, gave a very strong and heart-searching message to the Christians present. His remarks were based upon the words of the Apostle Paul, "Ye Are Christ's." Mr. Gibbs showed that the believer is Christ's by the gift of the Father to the Son, by purchase price, be the choice of faith, and by dedication. He warned against the possibility of people being self-deceived in spiritual things and urged them to examine themselves in the light of God's Word.

A spirited song service was led by John W. Owens. Special musical numbers were a selection by the choir and a quartet by Mrs. Stanley Reese, Mrs. Harry Cook, Charles Fomelle and Paul Arrow. Prayer was offered by Rev. H. G. Woodrow and the benediction was given by Rev. C. F. Whetsell of the local Nazarene church.

This evening the ladies of the church will be special guests. Mr. Gibbs will speak on the subject "The Need of a Change."

Local Club Plans To Observe Week

Several Special Events Planned For Observance Of National Business Women's Week

Sunday will commence the nationally recognized as business women's week and the local club of Business and Professional Women is planning to observe that week by several special events.

Sunday evening the club will go in a body, to the Trinity Episcopal church. Next Wednesday at noon a luncheon will be enjoyed in the Green Room of the Y. W. C. A., followed by a brief program with reference to the business women's week.

On Monday evening, March 16, the week will be climaxed by a public relations dinner in the Y. W. C. A. Green Room. This dinner will be attended by delegates from other women's clubs and promises to be interesting and enjoyable.

In the New Castle club there are about 130 members. The national federation has 60,000 members and 1,250 local clubs and 47 state federations.

Turkey Hen Makes Egg-Laying Record

Pomeroy Fowl Lays Eggs In Snow Drifts Throughout The Winter

Another candidate for egg-laying honors is put forward by W. R. Davis of near Pomeroy, O., a subscriber of The News, who has a turkey hen which has been laying right through the winter.

In a recent letter to his daughter, Mrs. F. C. Scheppele of North Mercer street, he tells of the exploits of the bird, which commenced laying on November 15 and continued to lay until February 9.

The turkey hen, in addition to providing many contests in the family as to who would get the daily egg for breakfast, also furnished excellent exercise in gathering the eggs from the snowdrifts in the woods, some half-mile away from the house.

ENDED HEALTH ILLS

"Ten Herbs built up my health by benefiting my whole system," said Mr. Peter Benson, 504 Riverside Ave., New Castle. "Before using Ten Herbs my kidneys were not working properly. I had pains across my back and had to arise often at night. I was troubled with rheumatism. Food did not digest right and gas on my stomach kept me from sleeping well. Nervousness troubled me and I was constipated. I tried Ten Herbs and now my kidneys are in good condition. My appetite has been restored and I am no longer troubled with gas. Constipation was ended. It gives me pleasure to recommend Ten Herbs to others."

Ten Herbs is sold at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 E. Washington St., and by all drug stores throughout this entire section.

Discontinue Football At Wilmington High

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 4.—The regular monthly meeting of the New Wilmington school board was held Monday night in the office of Principal Walt Whitman. During the evening the matter of continuing football was brought before the board and after considerable discussion the board voted unanimously to discontinue the sport until such a time when students of the school will take more interest in the game. The action of the board means that for the coming year at least New Wilmington high school will not be represented on the football field. The board also voted to observe Good Friday as a holiday and Friday, June 5, will be commencement day at the local school. Regular monthly bills were ordered paid and other routine business transacted.

TAX WAS TOO MUCH.
(International News Service)
EL CENTRO, Calif., Mar. 4.—"Exorbitant taxes" have a wide interpretation, according to Ed. H. Law, county clerk, who has received a complaint from a woman resident of Imperial county charging that 53 cents is too much to pay on 10 acres of undeveloped land.

She stated in her letter that the land was sold to her in the belief that it was to be brought under cultivation by the construction of Boulder canyon dam, but that it was stony and worthless and that 53 cents was too much to pay for it outright, to say nothing of such a charge for taxes.

Toledo Woman Is Found Murdered

Police Seek Clues In Brutal Slaying Of Woman At Toledo, Ohio

(International News Service)
TOLEDO, O., Mar. 4.—Mystified by a complete absence of clues, police were searching today for the slayer of Mrs. Sophie Bania, 35, mother of two children, who was found beaten and choked to death in her home late yesterday.

Their mother's body was found by the two children, Josephine, 7, and Herman, 8, upon their return from school. The body lay in bed with blankets hastily pulled over the face.

Coroner Frank G. Krefl, called to investigate, found the house a shambles. Bloodstains on the stairs and walls and discovered furniture indicated that Mrs. Bania had fought desperately against her attacker.

House Accepts Senate Bill On Vets' Hospitals

Last Big Fight Of Session In House Is Settled Today

SENATE REFUSED TO CUT FIGURES

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—The last big fight of the session in the house was settled today when the house accepted the senate bill authorizing $20,577,000 for veterans' bureau hospitals.

The house yielded after the senate had refused to cut the bill to the house figure of $12,500,000 and provide that the hospitals be located as outlined in a house report.

Under the bill, as passed, the president and federal board of hospitalization will select the sites.

Rep. Luce (R) of Massachusetts, chairman of the house conference committee, was forced to yield in the face of a promise of Speaker Longworth to permit a house vote on the senate bill. Longworth's promise was made after rigorous filibustering in the house last night during which the house twice adjourned until 2:15 a. m.

BONDS MISSING IN GUYER CASE COURT DISCOVERS

In each case, but the bonds in that amount were not filed out on the transcripts for the March term of court. The only bond which is in evidence was one given for the appearance of the defendant for a hearing before the alderman.

Must Be Probed
"As the record stands it does not show anything that would compel the defendant to appear in court for trial. The court does not know why this is. It appears that the defendant was held for court on bail, but there is no bail. The court does not know whether or not bail was given. It is possible that it was. It may be that the bonds may be found. If they cannot be found then some person is culpable. If bonds were not given then the public is entitled to know why. We submit it to you to discover the responsibility."

"You may be able to locate these bonds," said the court. "That would be a happy solution of the difficulty. If they are not produced then you are to determine if there was any negligence; and if so, what it was. It is a matter the court ought to know about, and you ought to know about."

"We would suggest that you leave this matter until after you have finished the other work before you. Then you may call such witnesses as will be necessary to determine what has become of the bonds."

From Alderman's Office
Records in the case show that they were sent up from the office of Alderman Walter T. Hamilton. The original bond for Guyer's appearance before the alderman in the sum of $1500 is returned. The information was made on December 12th, 1930 and a hearing date fixed which was later postponed.

The transcripts returned show that the hearing was held on January 15th, 1931, and that the defendant was held for the March term of court in each of the 23 cases. In the returns it is stated that James H. Rugh, attorney in fact for the Southern Surety Company of New York, entered into recognizance in the sum of $1500 in each case for the appearance of the defendant at the March term of court. Below this notation is a form of bond which is supposed to be filled out in each case returned, but the bonds are not filled out.

Under the direction of the court is the duty of the grand jury to summon the alderman to appear and produce the bonds or give a satisfactory explanation. The investigation, as suggested by the court, will be made following the conclusion of the other work before the grand jury.

The charges upon which Guyer was indicted were for violations of the security act in selling stock of the Atlantic Drug and Chemical Company. It is contended that Guyer was not registered as a salesman by the Pennsylvania Securities Commission, and also that the Atlantic Drug and Chemical Company was not registered as required by the act of assembly.

Alderman Walter T. Hamilton, when apprised of the action taken by the court this morning said that all the papers in the case had come through the district attorney's office, and that he supposed that everything was alright.

All those expecting to make the trip are urged to be at the Legion Home at 7:15 o'clock to make the trip.

Thank Offering At Reformed Church

Missionary Societies Hear Missionary And Enjoy Playlet Tuesday Evening

The Women's and Young Women's Missionary Societies of the Reformed Presbyterian church enjoyed a joint program Tuesday evening when they held their thank offering service.

Mrs. A. C. Gardner, president of the Women's Missionary Society was in charge of the meeting, with Mrs. John Pattison leading the song service and Mrs. Oscar Woods offering prayer.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. Margaret Work, with Mrs. Margaret Speer Gibson giving a beautiful summary of her life.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson Colvin, a missionary returned from India for her sabbatical leave, was the speaker of the evening. Mrs. Colvin, who is of most pleasing personality, gave a message that was most instructive. She told of the work being done by the missionaries in India and also stressed the point that more could be done.

Mrs. Catherine Christoffer gave some splendid piano numbers. A missionary playlet, "A Mountain Scene," was presented by the Young Women's Missionary Society, under the direction of Myril Riley, with Mrs. Edith Hollis as the mother; Mrs. Ethel Sager as the neighbor; Edna Jenkins as Phoebe; Margaret Williams as Mary Ellen; Jean Tidball as Luella, and Josephine Kennell as Jeppie.

A reception for the purpose of meeting Mrs. Colvin was held at the close of the program and dainty refreshments were served by the social committee: Mrs. S. L. Wilson, Mrs. J. L. McCaskey, Mrs. T. M. Pattison, Mrs. Ethel Sager, Mrs. Robert Bowes and Mrs. Harold Allen.

RUSHING MEASURE FOR PYMATUNING DAM FUND

(From News Bureau) (State Capital)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 4.—Work on the Pymatuning dam seems to be a matter of weeks, instead of months. The House appropriation committee today reported out the Stevenson bill carrying an appropriation of one and a half million dollars, to be available immediately upon the signature of the governor. The bill is on first reading in the House for next Monday night, second reading on Tuesday and third reading and final passage on Wednesday morning. It could be passed by the Senate the following week and signed by the governor before March 15.

The appropriation for the dam is in the budget, but the general appropriation bill will not come up until near the end of the session. It was then suggested that the appropriation for the dam be put in the emergency appropriation, and while this was not done, the bill reported out will go through probably on the same list as the emergency appropriation.

The bill reported out today is that of Representative Stevenson of Mercer county. No bill can get through under six legislative days, which puts passage of this bill up to the Senate about next Wednesday. With the passage of the appropriation the plans for the new dam will be completed, bids will be asked and work will start.

Girls To Have Camp Phillips For Two Weeks

Miss Nance Pugh, director of Girl Scouts, has received word from the Boy Scout executive, Horton, informing her that the Girl Scouts of New Castle may use the Boy Scout camp from August 8 to 22 this year.

Last year the Girl Scouts used the Fred Rentz Y. M. C. A. camp and about 100 girls enjoyed camp life there. It is believed that more girls will register for camp this summer.

Camp Phillips, the Boy Scout camp, is located at Kennedy's Mills.

Alleged Drunken Driver Is Nabbed

State highway patrolmen last night arrested a man giving the name of Benjamin Perotti, Ayres street, Youngstown, on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

He pleaded guilty at the office of Alderman Mantz and was remanded to the county jail to await a plea and sentence.

Charles Toun, an occupant of the car, also was taken into custody on a charge of disorderly conduct and was sent to jail for 10 days by Alderman Mantz.

The arrests were made on the New Castle-New Bedford highway near Parktown corners.

Thief Frightened In Robbery Attempt

Awakens Woman Sleeping In The Home And Makes His Getaway

An attempt at robbery about 4:45 o'clock this morning in the home of Mrs. Rachel Fair, 833 South Mill street, was prevented, when the robber after gaining entrance, awakened a woman of the household who was sleeping in the parlor and she called out to others in the house.

As soon as she did this, the man, whom she was unable to see clearly, made a hurried exit from the home, ran out between the houses and across the street. The man according to the woman was about five feet eight or nine inches in height and wore a short army coat.

Officers Dukes, Hanna and Lockard answered the call but found no one in the vicinity. Detective Logan

The Parent Problem

Wife Of Traveling Man Has Problems Of Own

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.
Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

In the rearing of her children the wife of the traveling man has a group of problems all her own.

At the moment when she most feels the need of her husband's counsel and assistance, he may be miles away. She must bear nearly all the worries and anxieties for their training and responsibility for their conduct.

In matters of discipline the father who arrives home only occasionally may often be more of a hindrance than a help. Indeed, his visits sometimes breed new problems for her.

Because he is away so much he is tempted to compensate by overindulgence. He brings home gifts, buy the affections of his children, amusing them while he is there. Home just for a little while, the new interest he creates, particularly for the toddler and runabout, make him a welcome guest to them. If any discipline seems to him necessary he is likely not to administer it since he is to be with them just a little while, and since he wishes to be remembered happily by the children. After he leaves, the mother has the task of "correcting" the children and, they may, in contrast, consider her a little hard on them; in some instances almost as their enemy for a little while.

If, while this father is home, the conduct of the children greatly annoys him, he tends to censure the mother, and right before the children.

The wife of the traveling man, who is the mother of young children, unless some adult relative stays with her, or she can afford competent caretakers of her children, must stay home practically all the time. And when the father comes home he naturally wants to stay at home with the family. He expects her to remain there, too, it rarely occurring to him to plan outings for her and the family or to keep the children while she goes out to make some social contacts. So far as he thinks of the matter, her joys should be full in having him there.

The family car may be wholly idle during his absence, since he probably has a curious notion that his wife, being a woman, cannot safely drive it; and he is very sure she would be less dependable with it than most women, since she "is so nervous". Accordingly, he exacts promises from her never to touch it in his absence lest he will have to worry all the while he is away from home, adding, perhaps, that such worry would greatly impair his efficiency in business.

While talking about this car attitude by many traveling husbands a friend of mine recently who is a psychiatrist, and who, by the way, leaves his car at home so his wife and children can have it for their use, he suggested that some husbands have other reasons for not wanting their wives to drive the car while they are away from home. Can you guess what he referred to?

In case a mother who reads this has a husband such as the one I have been describing, who thinks you should not run the car, think the most of it. For the sake of greatest family happiness you may find it wise to adapt yourself to his wishes. But if you are calm and persuasive you might induce him to let you learn to drive. But, pray do not have him teach you else both of you will be convinced that his fears had been well grounded.

To some wives of traveling men, there are compensations: The children have only one less for most of the time, and the mother can carry through a program of training her children with a minimum of interference.

Congregation Plans To Beautify Church And Parsonage Grounds In The Spring

Monday evening the church board of the Church of the Nazarene met for a business session and were pleased to accept the decision of Rev. C. F. Whetsell, to remain as their pastor another year.

At a meeting of the board held a few weeks ago the invitation was extended to him to remain another year and at Monday's meeting he accepted. Rev. Whetsell came here a year ago from Uhrichsville, Ohio, which congregation he had served four years.

The interior of the church has been cleaned and plans are going forward for the beautifying of the church and parsonage grounds by planting trees, shrubbery and vines this spring.

The board voted to have the secretary extend to The New Castle News its sincere thanks for the publicity given in the papers daily during the recent revival services, and for the courtesy extended at all times by the religious editor. Few papers are so generous and it is greatly appreciated by the congregation.

INCOME TAX FACTS

No. 27

Taxes on personal property and real estate, business or residential, paid during the taxable year 1930 are deductible from gross income. However, so-called taxes on local benefits, such as the construction of a sewer, sidewalk, street paving, drainage, and similar improvements, the cost of which tends to add to the value of the property assessed and the benefit of which accrues to a limited number of property owners, are not deductible. Taxes paid by a tenant to or for a landlord for business property are deductible by the tenant as rent and constitute taxable income to the landlord. Taxes paid by a tenant to or for a landlord for property occupied by the tenant as a residence are not deductible, since they are a personal living expense.

The Federal income tax may not be deducted. However, income taxes paid upon the incomes of individuals to States may be deducted by an individual on his Federal income tax return. The deduction of estate and inheritance taxes is confined to the estate.

Admission taxes are deductible but the taxpayer must show that account has been kept of the amount paid. Taxes on club dues are deductible by the member paying them.

Stamp taxes on the issue of bonds, stocks, passage tickets, and playing cards may be deducted either as business expenses or taxes, but if deducted under one heading they may not again be claimed under another.

Import or tariff duties paid in the operation of a business are deductible, provided they are not added to or made a part of the merchandise with respect to which they are paid. Customs duties on articles imported by a person for his own use are deductible.

License fees exacted by a State or city upon certain businesses are deductible as taxes. Automobile license fees are ordinarily deductible.

SLAP AT ART.

In a play put on some time ago by a small stock company, one of the scenes was in the trenches on the Western front. The author, to convey the impression that the men in the scene were being fired on, from across No Man's Land, wanted to have two or three handfuls of gravel thrown at them from backstage.

He had ordered this done when a representative of the union appeared and said that two extra stage hands would have to be hired at $12 a day, apiece.

Asked why, he explained that the gravel after being thrown, would doubtless fall on the stage and that at least two more stagehands would be needed to sweep it up at the end of the act.

"Two full-grown stage-hands at $12 a day each, to sweep up two handfuls of gravel!" exclaimed the author.

The union man merely shrugged. If the gravel were thrown, and that at least two more stagehands would be needed, it would be necessary to call off all the stage-hands, and thus close the show.

ANOTHER SCIENCE NOTE:

Some Doc has just discovered why the female of the species chatters faster and more often than the male.

It's because of a difference in her vocal mechanism and not because of inherent empty-headedness, as male jokesters have contended, thru the ages.

The female vocal mechanism being more delicate than that of the male, works more easily. That's all there is to it.

Not content, however, with lifting the stigma of senselessness from woman's chatter, The Doc takes a crack at male complacency.

The "strong, silent man," he says, is a lot of hoo-y—a myth—which has served to camouflage sluggish male muscles since time immemorial.

Office Team Deadlocks For League Second Place

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Things are again complicated as in the first round of the Shelby league as the Office defeated the Hot Mills 23-16 and are thus deadlocked for second half honors. The Specialty just won the Mechanicals in a thrilling contest in the second game last night in the Shelby auditorium score 40-38. It was the fouls that decided this latter game. The Mechanicals collected 2 more baskets than the victors but only accredited themselves with 4 out of 14 fouls as the champions accounted for 10 out of 16. This resulted in the first victory for the Specialty in this round.

The first game was astounding as the Office quintet began to show off an unheralded passing attack which dogged the strong Hot Mills performers. They were exceptionally good on the offense and defense. The inability of the Hot Mills to score in the initial period was directly responsible for their down fall. The fast attack led by Elder Leyda, and Blandine netted them 10 points for the first quarter. The Office again outscored their opponents in the next period 6-4, the score at half-way being 16-4. At the resumption of play in the ensuing period the Hot Mills makes a desperate attempt to penetrate the stalwart defense of the Office, and partially succeeds when the former collected 4 points to 2 for the Office, the score being 18-10 at the end of the period. The final stanza was marked with the s, lentic defense revealed by both quintets. The Hot Mills again got the best of the argument in the final stanza, obtaining 6 points to 5 for the Office and the score being 23-16 for the Office. The winners were also more proficient from the free throw line accounting 7 out of 11 shots while the losers accounted for 4 out of 10 attempts.

Second Game
In the second game the champion Specialty strong comeback was bewildering. It seemed at last they had obtained their old form. With fast precision they went on a scoring spurt which netted them 17 points to 7 for the Mechanicals, by the end of the first quarter. In the ensuing period the Mechanicals had made a strong comeback as they outscored their rivals 11-8 but it was insufficient to overcome the lead of the Specialty the score being 25-18 at the end of the half for the champions. Marked rivalry and a good defense was evident in the third quarter as each team strives for victory. The Specialty again proved to be the best as they added a point to their lead and acquiring 8 points to 7 for the Mechanicals. The score at the close of the period still favored the champions 32-25. In the final period the Mechanicals had made a supreme rally which was cut short by the whistle. They had nearly upset the Specialty for the second time but just lacked 2 points. The losers had hit a fast stride and it was apparent that with one minute more of play they would probably have accomplished their desire. But unfortunately the final whistle prevented this. The final score stood 40-38 in favor of the Specialty.

The scoring was divided in the first contest and there were thus no star performers—the fine team work being the feature. Hennon and Sumner were outstanding for the Specialty in the second game, while Lebate, Stasick, and Boyle were the best bets for the Mechanicals.

A great threat faces the Hot Mills Saturday when they meet the Specialty in the regular league game. The latter after a long losing streak may turn out to make the remainder of the games, 3 in number for each team, victories. A defeat for the Hot Mills will automatically give the Office the league lead. The Office have also no easy obstacle to overcome when they engage the Mechanicals, as was recently shown by the latter. The Hot Mills still has an equal chance in case they are defeated by the Specialty and then they in turn trip the Office, matters will again be deadlocked and a playoff will be necessary.

One of the largest crowds is expected to turn out to the double header in the Shelby auditorium Saturday.

Mrs. Eichenberger's Funeral Thursday
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Mrs. Rosetta Eichenberger, aged 66 and wife of Peter Eichenberger of Wiley Hill passed away Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at the home. It is believed that a heart attack was the cause of the sudden death.

She is survived by her husband and the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Frank George, Mrs. William Dewey both of Beaver Falls, Mrs. Dan Bookamer of Ellwood City, Mrs. Ray Maine of Belton, Mrs. Isabella Majors of New Castle, Mrs. Hiram Main of Wiley Hill, and the sons: George of Melroy, Peter of Belton, John of Park Gate, and Rudolph of Browns Addition. Also the deceased is survived by 35 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services have been arranged for Thursday afternoon, 2 o'clock from the residence. Burial will take place in the North Sewickley cemetery.

Betty Coeds Have Pleasant Evening
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—With charming hospitality Miss Cora Mae Javens entertained the members of the Betty Coeds club at her home on Todd avenue.

Cards were the chief diversion of the evening with two tables being at play. At the conclusion of the games Gerry Walters and Miss Isabelle Javens were the prize winners. Assisted by her sister, the hostess served a delicious luncheon at a later hour. A color scheme of green was carried out in honor of St. Patrick's day.

Miss Audreine Scheidemantle invited the club to meet at her home in two weeks at their next regular meeting.

Budget Theme For Council Meeting
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—The city council at its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening will dwell on the proposed budget to be adopted. They will discuss the subject thoroughly.

It was announced that the tax millage will remain the same as previously. No increase or decrease is scheduled to take place.

CAREFUL THOUGHT AND PLANNING NEEDED FOR BEAUTIFUL GARDEN
Nine times out of ten the attitude of mind of the creator of a garden is haphazard as to plan. More and more, however, people in the United States are giving careful thought and planning to their gardens as to their homes, and in time it is hoped that the gardens of American homes may be as carefully planned with a view to their fitness to their particular environment as those in

Wurtemburg Has Good Attendance

Many Children Achieve Perfect Attendance Record For Month

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Many children of the Wurtemburg Consolidated School are the proud possessors of the title "perfect attendance" for the month of February. The school shows a usually good record, and is very proud of the fact.

ELLWOOD ENDS FLOOR SEASON WITH TRIUMPH

Tube City Tossers Take Over Monaca High By 27-22 Score

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Concluding their season of basketball activities with a thrilling victory over the Monaca quintet by a 27-22 score in the Lincoln gym last night, before a fine crowd. Nearly the entire student body was present to cheer the home team on to victory. The triumph is generally magnified in view of the revamped lineup that started the contest. Also some new faces appeared in the game.

Monaca scored first as Youtes accounted for a shot under the basket. Hence the Ellwood passers launched a powerful offensive which gave them the lead for the first quarter, which they maintained for every period thereof. The score stood 5-3 at the close of the initial period and 16-11 for the locals at the half way mark. Each team had scored 8 points in the ensuing period. The Inglenien still maintained a 5 point lead at the close of the third quarter, score 24-19. Both quintets tightened up their defense in the final stanza which proved difficult to penetrate as each could only score 3 points, the final score being 27-22.

It was the better accuracy at the charity mark that netted the home team the game. Each had accounted for 10 field goals but the locals tallied more fouls than the invaders. Ellwood sunk 7 out of 11 attempts and the Monacas 2 out of 10.

The contest was exciting and hard fought throughout as the visitors strove to avenge their previous defeat and the Ellwood boys to end their season with a victory.

There were no individual stars for Ellwood as the boys unleashed a fast passing attack that caused Coach Smith, and Foresythe to each account for 9 points. Lasso was a new recruit to the team and gave a good accounting of himself when he substituted for Kennedy. For the visitors Youtes was outstanding as he collected 5 baskets. His team mate Trumpter got the other 2.

Lineup:
Ellwood 27, Monaca 22.
Cloak, Kennedy, Foresythe, Youtes, Latio, Alexander, Thomas.
Substitutions: Ellwood—Lasso for Kennedy, Dudick for Latio, Kennedy for Foresythe, Monaca—Calhoun for Coonds, Keeback for Youtes, Humit for Alexander, Coonds for Calhoun.

Field goals: Ellwood, Smith, Cloak 3, Foresythe 2, Latio, Smith 1, Monaca, Youtes 5, Trumpter, Thomas 2, Alexander 1.
Foul goals: Ellwood 7 out of 11, Monaca 2 out of 10.
Referee—Lewis.

Shooting Victim Leaves Hospital
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Earl Cunningham, victim of a hold-up and shooting affray was discharged from the Ellwood City hospital Tuesday evening after receiving satisfactory treatment to his wounded thigh. The youth is in high spirits and glad to get back to familiar surroundings at his home in Wayne road.

No new developments have arisen since the unpleasant affair last Sunday in the Central hotel according to Chief of Police W. C. Morrison.

VETS SECURING LOANS
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—According to Justice of the Peace S. Y. Douds there are many Ellwood City veterans taking advantage of the Soldier's Bonus loan recently authorized by Congress.

Squire Douds has offered the use of his office to veterans free of charge. That is there is no fee for services. There is also a large supply of applications on hand and no danger of running short.

Manhattans To Conclude Season

Will Meet League Champs In Final Clash Of Schedule

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—This week has proved to be rather busy as certain events are held for the last time of this season. The local high school closed its court activities Tuesday night and the Ellwood City Manhattans will close theirs this evening in the Shelby auditorium when they will entertain the Schnelders of the West Penn loop. The Schnelders have won the league championship and are a sturdy foe to deal with.

The Manhattans as a whole have had a successful season, holding victories over the best teams in the Allegheny league. They looked like the champions for the second half until they were tripped by a weaker foe in the league, Charlior, who at the end of the half was in second place.

The locals hope to add this game to their string of victories and thus end the season in a much brighter way.

The visitors have a delegation of some popular stars, among them Slim Ransom, former Geneva luminary.

Manager John Ruscovic will start his strongest combination this evening. He does not intend to overlook anything in ringing the curtain down with a triumph.

P. H. C. Meets In Schweiger Hall

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—The members of the Protected Home Circle held their regular meeting last night in the Schweiger hall at which there were present members from Beaver Falls and Freedom.

The usual business meeting was held and the routine business transacted. After the business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent at cards and bingo. In cards Mrs. Arthur Main won high score favor with Mrs. Bloom winning second honors and Miss Eva Mae Duncan low score award for the ladies. For men Arthur Main took first prize, Charles Fye second and Louis McKim low favors. In bingo Mrs. Lawrence Stevenson and Mrs. Mary Benrhim were high and low winners respectively.

The committee in charge for the evening was Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. Joseph Hudspeth, Mrs. Stella Baney and Mrs. Harry Ott.

Tuesday Bridge Club Entertained

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—Mrs. John Lindgren delightfully entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge club at her home on Pershing street.

All of the club members were present and thoroughly enjoyed bridge and the chief diversion for the evening. There were two tables at play and at the conclusion of the games Mrs. W. C. Morrison and Mrs. Ivan Romack were the prize winners.

As a concluding event the hostess served a delectable menu at a late hour.

MISSIONARY MEETING
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—The Women's Foreign Missionary Society held an interesting meeting last night at the home of Mrs. George Roys in Wayne avenue. There was a good attendance with 14 members being present.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Paul Winters, Mrs. R. J. McKim, Mrs. Edward Spencer. The society will meet again at the home of Mrs. Clyde Hill in the first Tuesday of April.

PYTHIAN SISTERS
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—The Pythian Sisters of Alma Temple will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 in the K. of P. hall. The captain of the degree staff urges that all members be present as there is some important business to be discussed. After the business meeting a drill is scheduled to take place.

'Ware, Sleepy Head!

No more fooling the boss! The "wabble" meter'll get you if you don't watch out. R. W. Brown, Akron, O., research engineer, has devised a meter to measure the amount of energy a man can give to his job. Then tasks are assigned accordingly. If you've been out late the night before, the "wabble" meter will betray you, for the more tired you are, the more you will sway when standing on the meter. Photo shows Brown standing on the device.

Farmers Special Kiwanis Guests

Annual Farmer's Night Is Observed By Kiwanians Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—A fine program was enjoyed by 19 farmers of the surrounding vicinity at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club last night in the Trinity Lutheran church. This meeting had been set aside for the local farmers and was known as farmers' night. The program was devoted to their interests and problems.

The feature of the evening was an address by C. C. C. Stalter of Pittsburgh. Mr. Stalter selected as his subject "Nonsense," one exceedingly humorous and entertaining but yet it was a subject with a purpose behind it, and revealed many interesting facts.

The club is now making special preparations for putting on a big program for St. Patrick's day. Paul Cartwright and J. J. McLaughlin are in charge.

SAUER KRAUT SUPPER
ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 4.—A large crowd attended the sauer kraut supper sponsored by the King's Daughters Bible class held last night in the United Presbyterian church.

The committees were well paid for their hard labors as they observed the meal prepared disappear so rapidly. Also at this time the Intermediate society held a candy sale in connection with the supper.

The committee in charge of the affairs of the evening are Mrs. Frank Grove, Mrs. W. E. McInteer, and Mrs. James Jones. Miss Bessie Burroughs supervised the candy sale.

SCOUTS PLAN PROGRAM

The Boy Scouts here are planning to give a program some time soon of which all the scouts will take part. The program, place and time will be announced later.

CHEWTON

SERVICES CONCLUDED
The Evangelistic Meeting at the Chewton Church of Christ came to a close Sunday with three large crowds, there being 155 present at the Bible school session; and a large and interested audience heard the morning and evening sermons on "The Judgment Day" and "The Unpardonable Sin." Mr. Sam Burrows, Scotch singer of Ellwood City assisted by friends gave several very acceptable musical numbers. The church orchestra also rendered several splendid numbers. Much lasting good has resulted in the community as a result of these two weeks meeting. There were 32 men present Sunday in the Loyal Mens Bible Class and 27 young men present in the Young Mens Bible Class. These classes are engaged in a contest to date they are in a tie. The winners will be guests of honor at a banquet to be given by the losers. The contest continues through March and April.

BOY SCOUTS
On Monday evening the boys of the church and community met in the church basement to lay plans for organizing a Boy Scout troop in this community. There was a large number of boys present, and in the near future a troop will be in full operation. For the present the church minister will supervise the preliminary arrangements.

PRAYER MEETING
Wednesday evening at 7:45 the church will meet in their regular weekly prayer meetings. The 5th chapter of Mark will be studied and Elder Chas. Yoho has been selected to lead the meeting. The average attendance in the past has been 25, but it is expected a larger number will attend.

LADIES AID
The Ladies Aid of the Chewton church will meet on Thursday for a day's work, which will be spent in quilting, sewing and a business session. Lunch will be served at noon. The Ladies of the church turn out well and are doing a good work for the church.

LOYAL MEN'S CLASS
The March business meeting of the Loyal Mens Class will be held in the church basement, Saturday evening March 7th at 7:30. The vice president, Peter Tilla, will preside. A good social time will be held after the business is disposed of.

CHEWTON NOTES
Mrs. T. M. Fullerton and family of East Liverpool attended the Friday evening Gospel services.

Mrs. George Conners and daughter of Beaver are visiting for a few days with Mrs. Eliza Conners.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Patton and daughter Evelyn, of Conneville, Pa., visited with friends in Chewton on Sunday. They were the guests of Mrs. Eliza Conners.

Mrs. Carl Rent underwent an operation Saturday morning in the Jameson Hospital, New Castle, she is reported as doing as well as can be expected.

C. R. Coulter, who has been ill, is somewhat better.

Friday evening Class No. 4, and No. 5, will meet in the church basement for a social time. A large attendance is being provided for.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

21. Benedict Arnold—Schuyler's Retreat

AFTER THE FALL OF FORT TICONDEROGA GENERAL SCHUYLER GATHERED THE SCATTERED DETACHMENTS OF HIS LITTLE ARMY AND, FINDING HE HAD NOT ENOUGH MEN TO CHECK BURGOYNE'S ADVANCE, FELL BACK SLOWLY TOWARD THE HUDSON RIVER.

THE RETREATING AMERICANS FELLED TREES ACROSS ALL THE ROADS TO IMPEDE PURSUIT; EVERY BRIDGE WAS DESTROYED BEHIND THEM AND MANY STREAMS DAMMED SO THAT THEY WOULD OVERFLOW THEIR BANKS AND TURN A GREAT PART OF BURGOYNE'S ROUTE INTO A SWAMP.

SO THOROUGHLY DID SCHUYLER'S MEN OBSTRUCT THE ROADS THAT BURGOYNE'S ARMY, HAMPERED WITH ITS HEAVY GUNS AND BAGGAGE TRAIN, COULD ADVANCE ONLY A MILE A DAY. AFTER A 20 DAY MARCH FROM LAKE GEORGE THE WEARY BRITISH REACHED FORT EDWARD ON THE HUDSON ONLY TO FIND IT ABANDONED.

IN HIS RETREAT SCHUYLER'S STRENGTH STEADILY INCREASED AS BODIES OF RANGERS AND MILITIA CAME HURRYING FROM ALL DIRECTIONS, TO JOIN HIM. CROSSING THE HUDSON TO STILLWATER, SOME 20 MILES UP THE RIVER FROM ALBANY, SCHUYLER TOOK UP A STRONG POSITION ON BENNIS HEIGHTS AND GRIMLY WAITED FOR BURGOYNE TO APPEAR.

NEW CASTLE-MONESSEN WILL CLASH SATURDAY

Monessen Has Small But Fast Team Which May Surprise Local Cohorts

New Castle Continues Preparation For Second Floor Battle Of W.
P. I. A. L.
Tourney

Can New Castle continue its floor attack which is composed of a half-dozen defense and offense which to date has been the result of 534 points and 18 straight victories and which may eventually lead the Red and Black eagles through another W. P. I. A. L. title.

While fans are pondering on this question Coach Phil Bridenbaugh continues to drill his smooth working machine in connection with the second round contest of the W. P. I.
A. L. tournament on Saturday night which will bring together the New Castle quintet, winners of Section III and also conquerors of Ambridge in the first round and Mon-essen high wearing the colors of Section V at the Pitt floor.

Monessen earned the right to compete against the undefeated local ball heavies on Monday night by taking the measure of Bentleyville 23-19 in a first round battle. The game Saturday is important to both teams. A victory for either aggregation will enter it into the semifinal round of the schoolboy tournament.

The folks out in Monessen are swagging about their small speedy ball club. The Greyhounds were well represented in the rooting section Monday. According to reports from Monessen the basketball team representing that city will be backed up strongly. Preparations are being made to have a bigger delegation present at the game Saturday than that which attended the Monessen-Bentleyville game.

Something about Monessen. Mon-essen has a rather small team out it is fast. Speed as demonstrated in the Bentleyville game. The Greyhounds started out with a fast attack that put them 10 points ahead of their opponents at the half.
Bentleyville secured its points in the final period when the Monessen recruits got their chance to show their wares.

The critics after witnessing Mon-essen in action the other night thought that Monessen may hand the Coach Bridenbaugh machine the first setback of the year.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner stated today that by the looks of things there is going to be a big crowd present at the game from this city. Tickets are beginning to sell fast. The pasteboards which can be bought for 50 cents are on sale at the Sporting Goods Store on East Washington street and at the Senior High school office.

A special will leave the Pennsylvania station on West Washington street for the battle scene at 5:30 o'clock Saturday and will leave the Smoky

Allegheny Upsets Grove City 24-23

(International News Service)
GROVE CITY, Mar. 4.—Allegheny's floor representatives today held the verdict over the five of Grove City college, coming out on top in the contest last night by one point, 24-23. Kerr's playing for the victors was the stellar performance of the meet, and his last minute field goal clinched the victory for the visitors. Allegheny led 13-10 at the half.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Willie Davies lost to Midget Wolgast in their 10 round scrap last night at Pittsburgh. The decision was unanimous. Wolgast carried too many guns and was too fast for the Charleroi flyweight.

Primo Carnera and Jim Maloney will stage a mastodontic battle at Miami, Fla., Thursday night. Maloney outpointed the Italian giant in their first bout which was fought at Boston.

During the past few days the fans have been showered with stories that the Italian giant has a fractured rib. Maybe he has and maybe he hasn't. The story may have been originated as part of the ballyhoo.

Emil St. Godard led the field at the 12 mile mark yesterday at the Pitt in the 300 mile non-stop dog derby from The Post to Flin Flon mines and return. Shortly Rusick was second.

Helen Hicks was the only one in a field of international stars at St.
Augustine, Fla., to break 80 in the qualifying round of the Florida East Coast championship. She turned in a 76 and was four strokes better than Diana Fishwick.

Phil Tobias got hit on the chin for a row of 10 seconds last night when he encountered Pete Sanstol, the Norwegian. Sanstol is one of the best boxers in the country.

Shenango Tossers Down Butler Team

West Sunbury High Players
Take 25-21 Defeat; Girls
Also Lose

Journeying here from Butler county, the West Sunbury high school basketball team last night met defeat at the hands of the Shenango Township high school floor men at the Shenango gymnasium. The final score favored the locals 25 to 21.

The Shenango girls scored an easy win over the West Sunbury maidens in the preliminary engagement, the final count being 32-7.

Six Teams So Far In County League

Lawrence County League
Hopes To Start 1931 Season With Eight Teams

ALEC SAMUELS IS NAMED PRESIDENT

At an enthusiastic meeting of the managers of the Lawrence County baseball league, held last night at the Sporting Goods Store, Alec Samuels was elected as president of the league, William G. Andrews as vice-president and Eddie Conery as secretary-treasurer. Six teams have so far signified their intention of comprising the loop. It is earnestly hoped that eight teams can be secured.

The organization last night also selected three commissioners to handle all disputes and business they are—Louis "Pick" Glitch, Chris Coulthard and Charles Philip Wal-ther. Glitch and Walther are veteran commissioners of the former Lawrence County league, while Coulthard will be serving his first term.

Six Teams Entered
The following teams had representatives at the meeting—Brent, Hillsville, Bessemer, West Pittsburg, Garlands, Universal Sanitary company, Enon Valley.

The managers were very optimistic over the chances of a successful season this summer. It is to be an open league which means that players may be recruited anywhere. The teams will be strong.

March 30 is the next meeting of the league and franchise money will be accepted on that date, also it is the final date for entering the league. A real effort is to be made to recruit two more strong teams.
The league will play three games one week and two games the next week, according to the dope talked over at the meeting.

New Brighton Meets Ford City Tonight

Pitt floor tonight will be the scene of two strong opponents in the first round of the W. P. I. A. L. tournament which is now going on. New Brighton, Section IV champs and Ford City Section VI title winners are the principals.

New Brighton takes the hardwood with 15 wins and 4 defeats while Ford City has captured 17 victories and lost but three verdicts.

day Night

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 4.
—At a meeting of the athletic council of Westminster College held in the gymnasium last night, Attorney J. A. Stranahan, president, appointed four committees in charge of athletic activities for the rest of the year.

Eligibility committee: Dr. W.
Charles Wallace and Dr. J. J.
Swindler. Student committee: Louis
Pereseny and Michael Koehran.
Schedule committee: Dr. W. D. Cleland, New Castle, and Michael Kocheran. Committee on grounds and buildings: J. A. Pitzer, Dr. J. A.
Swindler, and Louis Pereseny.

The committee on grounds and buildings was instructed to submit plans for the improvement of the

St. Mary's Tops Merchants 24-23

Saints Defeat Strong New Wilmington Merchants
In Fast Game Here

HANNON-JONES
STARS OF GAME

The St. Mary's A. A. basketball team defeated the New Wilmington Merchants 24 to 23, in a sizzling battle at the auditorium last night. It was a thrilling game all the way with the locals fighting an uphill battle.

The locals were behind 17 to 10 as the first half ended, being held to four field goals by the visiting guards. The Merchants led by Delahanty secured themselves a fine lead in the first two periods, but fell short in the final half, when Han-non and Jones shot into action for the Saints. The lead was held by the Merchants up until the final 15 seconds of play when Jones was fouled and made good a charity throw. The guarding of Jones and Unle was superb.

Delahanty was the only Merchant able to tally from the floor in the final half of the game and the former Westminster star got two buckets.

The defeat of the Merchants here vindicates the earlier setback suffered by the Saints at New Wilmington. Father Nee, director of the team was highly pleased with the showing made by the Saints last night.

In the girls preliminary game the St. Mary's maidens defeated the First Christian girls 24 to 15. Conter starred for the Saints with seven baskets, while Dagnon also played a fine game for the winners. For the losers the work of Smith and Kennedy featured.

Tonight the St. Mary's Reserves are playing the Central Christians of the New Castle Church League.
Friday night the St. Mary's Big Five tackles the Youngstown "Y" College team here again. This is the team that recently beat the locals by one point.

The summary:
St. Mary's 24, N. W. Merchants 23.

Thiel Cagers Top St. Vincents 41-24

GREENVILLE, Pa., Mar. 4.—Thiel college's floor season was at an end today, with the final result in a complete rout of the quintet from St. Vincent college by a 41-24 score.
The visitors were held to a pair of field goals during the first half.
Thiel dominated the contest entirely, leading at the half-way mark, 31-

SORDS POINTS

Pirate Infield Hopes Lean On Bill Regan

By JACK SORDS

Central Press Sports Artist-Writer
Not many big leaguers this season will have the opportunity of Second Baseman Bill Regan, now a Pittsburgh Pirate, of starting before his home town folks. Of course, there's Lou Gehrig, who labors in New York, where he was born, and then there's Jimmy Dykes of the A's, a native Philadelphian. But there aren't many such.

Regan was born in the Smoky City a little over 32 years ago.
Bill comes to Pittsburgh after a so-so career in the American league.
Coming to the Boston Red Sox in 1926 Regan never proved a heavy hitter though he was a tough man to get out in a pinch. His best mark as a Bostonian was 238 in 1929.

The Buccaneers grabbed Bill because they needed infield insurance —and that's just what he is. If he doesn't grab the keystone job from George Grantham, Bill should prove a very capable reserve at that all-important post, something the Pirates have needed.

"With Bill Regan added," says Jewel Ens, Corsair boss, "we ought to have one of the strongest in-fields in the business."
Regan is a better infielder than Grantham, but is handicapped by his hitting record. It is quite possible that the Pirates may shift Grantham to first base in place of Gus Suhr, or to pinch hitting duties, in which event Bill can't miss becoming the Bucs' regular keystoneer.
Biss broke into baseball with the Kitchener club of the Mint league in 1921 as a shortstop, after having served his country in the A. E. F.
Several years later the Columbus American Association club grabbed him. Needing a second baseman the Senators tried him at that post and he has been taking care of the center back since. Bill was sold to the Boston Red Sox in 1926, remaining with that club until released through waivers this year.

This year as a magnate. Reports had it that Dreyfuss, because of the recent death of his son, contemplated withdrawing from the game.

Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Chicago Cubs, said the report was no surprise to him.

"I know it has been his desire to retire for some time," declared Hornsby.

Bethany Defeats
Geneva 31 To 30

(International News Service)
BEAVER FALLS, Mar. 4.—After a wild and exciting climax, Bethany emerged today holding a victory over Geneva college by the slender margin of one point, the final score being 31-30. The Jason's early lead was gradually cut down by the Genevans until the latter, with two minutes left to play, went into the lead and headed for a win. At this point, aided by a pair of fouls, Telfair, the Bethany center, caught his third field goal of the evening in the last three seconds to land the triumph for his team.

PORT MYERS, Fla.—The playing field improved over the soggy condition of yesterday, the Athletics planned a regular two-practice session today. Bob Johnson, outfielder, and Phil Todd, first baseman, attracted Connie Mack's attention by their snappy work. The veterans drill this morning and the Rookies this afternoon so Connie can size them up again.

Heavyweights To Battle At Bowl

Rocco Meets Sekyra And Kitts Will Take On Cohen March 16

TOTAL WEIGHT OF
BOXERS 1,620 POUNDS

Fans who have been hungering for a sight of mastodontic appearing bat-tlers will get an eyeful when March 16 arrives as four heavyweights, two middleweights, two lightweights and a brace of junior lightweights will step around the Castle bowl ring.
The show will be featured by Emmett Rocco of Elizabeth City and Joe Sekyra of New York. In all there'll be 1,620 pounds of fighters cavort.

Rocco and Sekyra have met before and each holds a decision. Both battles were good. The semi-final between K. O. Kitts of Akron and Sam Cohen of Cleveland, each weighing 195 pounds should produce a lot of hefty punching.

Having won the middleweight championship of the city, Joe Midway has been matched to fight Harry Attel of Youngstown. The last time they fought Midway was downed and Attel was down twice which signifies their hitting power.

Instead of dodging a meeting with Walter West, Johnny Banko signed along the dotted line yesterday after which he remarked, "Save a nice place for West to fall upon.
He's going to get it again."

When Walter was apprised of Johnny's statement, he replied: "He shoved me down the first time and I was shaken up by the fall. I'll bet my skates that I take him before the four rounds are over."

Marshall Couette of Cleveland, flashy junior lightweight, will tackle Buz Hardy, Paul Balint, Tony Marino or some other chap who has made good in this section.

The Rocco Sekyra fight has stirred interest here and as it is the first heavyweight battle in about a year the fans are anxious to see the heavy punchers answer the bell.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—"Big Buzz" Arlett, Pacific Coast hurler, Dick Bartell, ex-Pirate shortstop, Fred Brickell, outfielder and Edward Roetz, another shortstopper, set their first workouts with the Phillies today. Stiff arms are making their appearances due to cool weather. Hal Wiltsie is one of the chief trainers.

Petrolle-King Tut Decision Held Up

Boxing Commission Holds Up Final Decision Of Recent Quick Kayoe

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—A fresh crop of conflicting rumors was the aftermath of the action of the New York boxing commission late yesterday in reserving decision in its investigation of the King Tut-Billy Petrolle bout at Madison Square Garden last Friday night.

One observer who thought that Tut did his level best under the circumstances, predicted that both boxers would be cleared when the commission hands down its final verdict.

Another scribe came to bat today with the declaration that the board is satisfied there was collusion in connection with the affair and that both boys would be barred from New York state for life. He offered no substantiation for this statement.

In making its official announcement, the board merely stated it had reserved decision and would continue to hold up the purses of both fighters pending further investigation of the alleged fake. This action need not be construed as pointing to the guilt of the boxers, the fistic fathers declared.

curved balls were banging against Baxter's mitt while the veteran and rook pitching staff looked on.

PENSACOLA, Fla. — "Big Ed" Morris, Red Sox pitcher, who has had trouble with his hurling arm, was slowly but surely coming back into form today. Yesterday, he pitched a few curve balls.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—The Braves' Yanigans today had upset a kettle in the camp, by defeating the "Regulars" 5 to 4.

Central Press Sports Editor.

Big Bill is Very Large William

A scant few days after his first appearance as a paid employee on the tennis courts William Tatum Tilden II has been crowned king of the pros.

His conquest of Karel Kozeluh, the toughest he could find in pro tennis, has been so quick, so convincing that Tilden now finds himself the king pin of the sport, but with no one to play.

Tilden's six straight smashing victories over Kozeluh more than vindicated Will's previous remarks that he wasn't the has-been some folks had tagged him. But those victories virtually ruined Tilden's professional tour and have cost him plenty of jack with Karel temporarily forced to abandon his appearance with Big Bill because of exhaustion.

Outside of Kozeluh there is no one in pro tennis who looks like even a long shot against Tilden. Vinny Richards has been trounced by Karel a number of times and Frank Hunter and Emmet Pare were never near Big Bill's class.

However, Big Bill performed one great service for professional tennis. He proved it is honest. It might have been easy to let Kozeluh take a couple of those matches—"to build up the ballyhoo." I think the prize fight boys call that kind of racketeering—but Big Bill isn't built that way.

Tilden quickly discovered he could lick Kozeluh every time out—and that's just what he did. Big Bill went after the Czech star hammer and tongs as though the Wimbledon championship and the Davis cup hung on every stroke.

If true professionalism means that gate receipts and not victory is of prime importance then Big Bill Tilden, forever barred now that he is a professional from the ranks and tournaments of the simon pures, is still at heart an amateur.

While Tilden's dynamic conquest of Kozeluh did spoil the current pro tennis parade, I believe that his string of one-sided victories will prove in the end quite beneficial to the professional game.

When the pros' national tournament is held next summer and Bill comes through to win the national pro crown his great feats of the last few days are certain to quicken interest in the meet.

Heretofore the pro tourney was only a question of which would win, Kozeluh or Richards, with odds heavy on Kozeluh. The 1931 tourney brings us the drama of Big Bill against the field—and whether or not the others are in his class they are all stars and capable of beating him if he is off his stride.

And now we are in favor of adding pot liquor to the other liquors prohibited by law.—The Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Education pays. Think of the poor fellow who thought the month after July was spelled "Orgust" and died eating oysters.

Down in Dixie Base Ball Notes

TAMPA, Fla., Mar. 4.—Though not many fans outside of this spot and Cincinnati think the Reds have much chance to go anywhere this season, the club's lineup already seems about as certain as that of the world champion Athletics.

In all positions but one there is a player whose ability as compared with his rivals stamp him as a regular for 1931.

Clyde Sukeforth will do most of the receiving this season with the mound staff most probably consisting of Red Lucas, Ray Kolp, Owen Carroll, Eppa Rixey, Cy Johnson, Benny Frey, Al Eckert and one of two others.

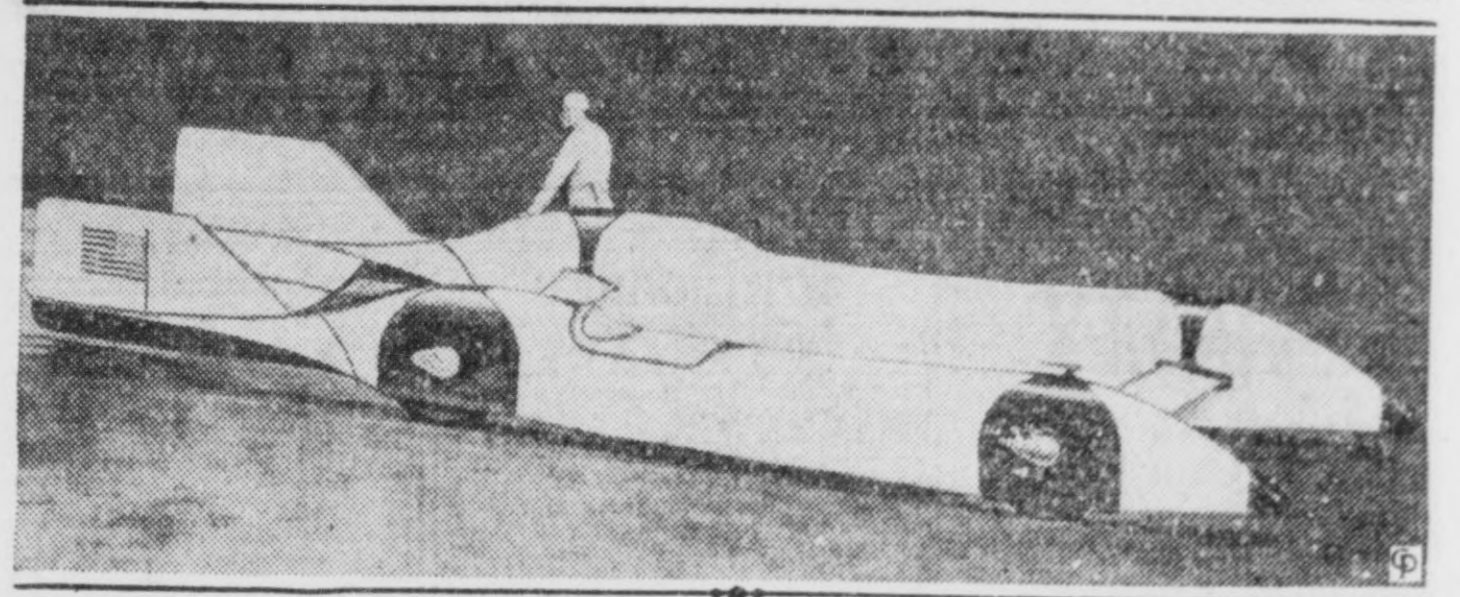

The infield set up looks like Mickey Heath, Tony Cucinello, Leo Durocher and Joe Stripp.

The outfield should consist of Ray Fitzgerald, Wally Roettger and Estel Crabtree, unless Harry Heilmann astonishes even his physicians by regaining some of his oldtime form. Arthritis has badly crippled Harry's right fin.

The passing of Horace Ford as a regular shortstop has surprised many, not the least of these being Ford himself.

Ford two years ago with the aid of Hughey Critz, now a Giant, set the league ablaze by marking up a new double-play record. This year he was told he would have to take

FOUR-MOTOR, TWO-BODY CAR BUILT FOR RECORD TRY

This odd-shaped automobile is being built by E. J. Pennypacker of Hollywood, Cal., in an attempt to produce a motor car capable of breaking Sir Malcolm Campbell's new world record of better than 245 miles an hour. The car is to have four motors—one within each wheel—and two pointed bodies to overcome wind resistance. The record attempt is to be made at Pismo Beach, Cal., by H. A. Patterson, former motorcycle racer, one-time aide of the late Sir Harry Segrave.

Carnegie Tech Tops Mountaineers 35-26

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 4.—Carnegie Tech's court squad, with Captain George Nease in the leading role, had turned back the invasion of the mountaineers from West Virginia after a fast contest here last night by a score of 35-26. Nease, with 14 points for the plaid, was largely instrumental in dealing out the defeat to the West Va. live. Although Carnegie led throughout most of the fray, their opponents threatened to seize the lead at every moment. The mid-time count was 18-10.

Pitt Panthers Top Presidents

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 4.—The University of Pittsburgh's basketball season was at an end today, the wind-up coming in the form of a conquest over W. and J. 32-15. The presidents were unable to make things interesting for the fans in a basketball way, and floundered completely in the second half. With the conclusion of the current season, the Panthers retired having lost out two games on their home court, one to Western Reserve and one to Indiana university.

Union High Tops Zelenople 27-19

Union High Passers Take Victory Over W. P. I. A. L. Team Tuesday Night

Union High school basketball team last night defeated Zelenople High 27 to 19, in a game played at Zelenople, Pa. The locals took an early lead and held it throughout the game.

The score at the end of the first half was 12 to 10 in favor of Union. Severa led the Union attack with five baskets after entering the game as a substitute. Zarembo and Mateja also played head-up ball for the Coach Boyd machine. Smith, Nesbitt and Hartman led the losers in field goals.

The Zelenople team defeated Union earlier in the year.

The summary:
Union High 27. Zelenople 19.
Zarembo.....F.....Nesbitt
Mateja.....F.....Smith
Augustyn.....C.....Young
Sniezek.....G.....Ziegler
Jaworski.....G.....Hitt
Subs—Severa, Reynolds, Phillips, Campbell, Hartman, Swadeky, Field goals—Zarembo 3, Mateja 2, Augustyn, Jaworski, Severa 5, Nesbitt 2, Smith 4, Hartman 2. Fouls—Union 3 out of 8. Zelenople 3 out of 6. Referee—Allison.

Training Camp Notes In Brief

(International News Service)

CLEARWATER, Fla., Mar. 4.—Contrary to all reports, Dazzy Vance has not signed yet with the Brooklyn Robins and it was learned today the pitcher is demanding $25,000. This is a $5,000 increase over last year.

PASO ROBLES, Cal.—Ordered to "bear down", the Pirates' sharpshooters eagerly obeyed—and a wee bit of doubt as to their own prowess existed among the sluggers of the Buccaneers today. Six pitchers cut loose during batting practice which lasted two hours. There was a perceptible lull in the heavy hitting as curves, hooks and slow balls challenged the sluggers.

AVALON, Cal.—Hack Wilson's first home run of the 1931 season was in the books today. It was scored in the ninth inning of a practice tussle between the Chicago Cubs and the Yanigans. The latter won 16 to 6.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—The batting order best suited to the Chicago White Sox was giving Manager Donnie Bush no end of trouble today. It was announced that nothing further can be done to entice Carl Reynolds, holdout right fielder, back into the fold.

TAMPA, Fla.—The Cincinnati Reds were to snap through their first regular workout today. Sloppy weather has prevented the squad from getting in any out-of-door practice since training camp opened.

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Earl Averill, center fielder and the Cleveland Indians champion home run hitter, was due in camp today. Averill was a holdout until last Saturday.

BILOXI, Miss.—The b. train still knows how to throw them out. F. R. Baxter, assistant trainer of the Senators, put on a catcher's glove and Manager Walter Johnson took his position at the other end of the field. A second after fast and

New York City.

Dear Sirs:

I want the cigar smoking public to be made conscious of the danger to health involved in any unsanitary methods of manufacture. "Spit-tipping" is disgusting and unhealthy. It will go when the public realizes it exists, and it is such a campaign as yours which will bring the public to this realization.

I commend your campaign heartily and wish you well. I have no objection to your publication of this letter, over my signature, if it will help in the good work.

Very Truly Yours,
John N. Ryan,
Health Officer, City of Passaic.

Every smoker, every wife whose husband smokes cigars, should read Dr. Ryan's letter.

"Who are the friends of 'Spit'?"

YOU MAY WELL ASK THIS QUESTION WHEN 56 IMPORTANT HEALTH OFFICIALS HAVE WRITTEN SO STRONGLY AGAINST THE EVILS OF SPIT OR SPIT-TIPPING.

Dr. Ryan writes: "'Spit-tipping' is disgusting and unhealthy."

The war against spit is a crusade of decency. Join it...Smoke Certified Cremo—a really wonderful smoke—mild—mellow—nut-sweet! Every leaf entering the clean, sunny Cremo factories is scientifically treated by methods recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

House Session Will Be Short

Routine Calendar Work For House In Short And Snappy Session

MEASURES TO BE ADVANCED

By ROBERT F. GORMAN
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Mar. 4.—The Lower House of the General Assembly today was slated to wind up this week's active session of the lawmakers by passage of third reading bills and advancement of a score of other measures on the calendar for action when the Assembly reconvenes next week.

Today's session in the House, it was indicated, would be short and fairly snappy. The Senate had already quit for the week when House members convened, winding up its affairs at an evening session last night when calendars were cleared for action for next Monday night.

Unless unforeseen complications arose, House leaders early today had mapped out a program which contemplated concentration of effort on the routine calendar, and little else was expected to be done in the Lower Chamber.

With the House Utilities Investigating Committee beginning its work tomorrow, it was the desire of Lower Chamber leaders to clear away as much work as possible today, so the House may get a head start next Monday, unhampered by the investigation, which is expected to be in full swing at that time.

Has Unique Role

GEORGE WINTER

In the senior high school comedy,
"Jerry", George Winter has been cast as Montague Wade. In that character he plays opposite Miss Harriet Kline, the active young whirlwind whose cap has been definitely set for him in the first act, Miss Kline being Jerry herself. As "Monty" is already encumbered with a fiancée he must perforce be off with the old, before he can be on with the new. This appears like a rather ungracious role for young Winter, but the change is made and no one is more surprised than "Monty". And no one is more gratified. In spite of appearances,
"Monty" is neither a villain nor a weakling, but a highly eligible bachelor.

Young People Plan For Spring Rally

Christian Endeavor Union To Have Wonderful Speaker
Here March 13

At the monthly meeting of the Lawrence County Christian Endeavor Union held Tuesday evening in the Central Presbyterian church, one of the principal matters up for consideration was the Annual Spring Rally to be held March 13, in the First Congregational Church on East Reynolds street.

Reports received relative to this coming event, indicates that it is to be one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever attempted by the Union.

The speaker of that evening is to be Charles F. Evans of Chicago, who is nationally known as a young people's worker. He was for many years secretary of the International C. E.
Society and comes with a wealth of Christian Information and inspiration.

Due to the national status of the speaker, it has been decided that the meeting addressed by Mr. Evans shall be open to the general public and the people of the city will be welcomed to this part of the coming rally. The program of the evening as planned at last night's meeting will include a strong program of song in addition to the address.

The rally as planned will open with a banquet at 6 p. m. immediately following which the annual election of officers by the members of the Union will take place. The open meeting will be held at eight o'clock in the auditorium of the church.

The meeting last night was attended by twenty-seven delegates from nine Christian Endeavor Societies. Rev. Dickinson opened the meeting with a scripture reading, and Dr. C. B. Winger followed with prayer. Harry Wilson presided. Previous to the business meeting, the nominating committee consisting of one delegate from each society met and nominated officers for the ensuing year. These will be voted on at the rally March 13. Encouraging reports were also read by all department superintendents.

Men's Class Will Attend Service

The Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday evening in the class room of the church at 7:30 in order to attend in a body at the evangelistic services being held in the church.

George Fox, president of the class anticipates that every member will be out as Men's night is being observed at the meeting and the class will sit in specially reserved seats.

an inferiority complex." That is the belief of Miss R. Louis Fitch, sity, which she recently expressed in a speech here.

Scout Deputies Get Year's Assignment

Northern Area Troops Apportioned To Council Men; Plan Contest

Various Boy Scout troops in the northern district of the Lawrence county council were districted at a meeting of scout deputies here this week, the object being to establish definitely the jurisdiction of the different deputy leaders over certain troops. Chief Deputy R. F. Davis was in charge.

They were assigned as follows:
Deputy E. O. Raney, troops 1 and 10; Deputy J. H. Gwin, troops 4 and 13; Dr. T. J. McPate, troops 5 and 18; Charles E. Lyle, troops 21 and 55; Dr. R. C. Lutz, troop 37 and the First Baptist church troop; R.
McCoy, troops 15 and 17; A. Colucca, troop 6 and a prospective troop in the Croton district, and County Agent H. R. McCulloch, New Bedford 1 and New Wilmington 1.

Scout Commissioner Earle Herbert, work with the Ellwood district deputies, headed by Jack Pearson, will district the Ellwood area troops among Deputies Pearson, Danner, Myers and F. Herbert.

Plans for a district contest which would be taken mostly from office records month by month were tentatively made. It is planned to award a trophy every three months to the district placing highest. Conditions of the contest will be forwarded to scoutmasters this month, the contest starting April 1.

Scoutmaster Sidney Smith of troop 15 presented interesting and enlightening data concerning city boy work to the deputies at their meeting.

The next get-together of the officers will probably be a supper meeting.

Vets And Ladies Invade Butler

Visitation Committee Guests Of Butler Post At Open
Meeting

Members of the visitation committees from the Harry L. McBride post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the ladies' auxiliary, to the number of around 40, went to Butler last evening, where they visited the Joseph T. Black post and their ladies at an open meeting.

A good program of entertainment was carried out during the evening and the Butler vets and ladies were invited to attend the commander-in-chief's banquet which will be staged here on April 9.
The Butler vets and ladies are backing the proposition strongly and promise to send a big delegation here to greet Commander-in-Chief Wolman.

COPS TO TEACH WOMEN

(International News Service)
EVANSTON, Mar. 4.—More than 300 women are expected to enroll in the driving school to be conducted by Evanston police, starting April 15. After a five weeks' course in Law and Driving Theory those who pass a written examination will be eligible to membership in the Practical Driving school.

Daily Annoyance Troublesome Nights

Caused By Bladder Weakness Are Wrecking Health of Thousands Who Should Be in Prime of Life

A big percentage of men and women of mature years are troubled with Bladder and Urinary Weakness, causing Backaches, Nervousness, frequent night risings and burning irritations throughout the day. These conditions not only make life miserable, but they sap vitality, undermine health and frequently lead to most painful operations.
In order to swiftly relieve even the most obstinate and distressing of these conditions, Dr. Southworth (a well known physician) offers you the value of a time-tested prescription called "Uratone"
—and you are invited to try it at once, without slightest risk of cost unless pleased. At Eckerd's and all druggists.
